DEAR STUDENT

It is a real pleasure to welcome you to Ghent University. We are proud that you have chosen our university as your new academic environment.

We will do our utmost best to make your stay in Ghent an exciting and valuable experience. Being one of the major universities in Belgium with over 43,000 students and ranked among the top-100 universities worldwide, our university can provide you with high-quality academic teaching, excellent infrastructure and a wide scope of student facilities. Embedded in the beautiful city of Ghent, you will be able to enjoy numerous social and cultural activities in the lively and creative atmosphere which is so typical for our city.

During the Welcome Days organised at the end of September and at the beginning of February, you will receive all information to guarantee an enriching and pleasant stay with us. Make sure to join us then and get off to a flying start! I wish you a very happy and fruitful stay in Ghent and hope that you will feel at home with us.

Prof. dr. Rik Van de Walle, Rector Ghent University
For the academic year 2018–2019
the Welcome Days are held on the following dates:
1st semester
20, 21 September 2018
2nd SEMESTER
7, 8 February 2019
WELCOME DAYS

FOR NEW INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Ghent University is offering a warm welcome to all its new international students, exchange students as well as degree students (including PhD). Right before the beginning of each semester the International Relations Office is organizing the Welcome Days. During this two-day programme the new international students at Ghent University receive a lot of practical information about the university where they will spend (part of) their studies. A wide variety of sessions, including a visit to the faculty of their choice and a city walk in Ghent guided by Belgian students are part of the programme.

Participation in the Welcome Days is free of costs but online registration is required. More information about the Welcome Days and the link to the online registration can be found on: www.ugent.be/en/administration/welcome-days/overview.htm

We hope that your first impression of Ghent University and the city of Ghent make you look forward to a pleasant and enriching stay here!

KEY TO USING THIS GUIDE

This guide has been written with the (arrival) needs of international students in mind. It is designed to answer practical questions about matters related to your arrival and concerning living and studying in Ghent. It will prove useful to you upon arrival at our university and remain a reference tool during your stay. It might be a good idea to keep it close at hand.

This guide is directed towards the following categories of international students:

- Degree students: study at Ghent University with the intention to obtain a degree awarded by Ghent University.
- Exchange students: remain enrolled at their home university and spend a study period at Ghent University within the framework of their study at their home university.

At the PhD level we distinguish:

- PhD students: perform doctoral studies and research at Ghent University with the intention to obtain a PhD degree awarded by Ghent University.
- Exchange PhD students: remain enrolled at their home university and spend a training, study, internship or research period at Ghent University within the framework of their PhD study at their home university.

Depending on the category to which you belong, certain administrative steps may differ. For this reason the distinction is made whenever necessary in this guide.

For more information about your status as a degree PhD student at Ghent University, please check: www.ugent.be/en/work/phd

- In the following weeks a police officer will check if you do indeed live at your address and afterwards you will be sent an appointment to go to the local Migration Office to complete your residence permit application.

Students who want to prolong their residence permit should contact the Migration Office about the procedure they should follow.
INSURANCE

Make your educational life at Ghent University as adventurous and educational as possible, but live it the safe way by making sure that you have the necessary minimum health insurance and possibly also other coverage!

HEALTH INSURANCE

Health insurance is of the utmost importance because medical costs may occur unexpectedly and can be very high in Belgium.

– Students from the European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland are insured by their homeland medical insurance company during their stay in Belgium. Ask your insurance company for a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) in order to receive reimbursement of medical expenses immediately in Belgium (after registration with a Belgian health fund) or soon after your return home. http://ehic.europa.eu

– Students from outside the European Economic Area (non-EEA) except Switzerland, or students without a European health insurance card have to take out health insurance directly with a Belgian health fund.

For more information about the health insurance consult https://www.ugent.be/en/administration/insurances/students.htm. A list of authorized health funds in Ghent, in alphabetical order, can also be consulted through this URL.
THE FOLLOWING INSURANCE IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

- Insurance Civil Liability Private Life
  You might need it when (accidentally) hurting other persons or damaging other people’s property during your private life.

- Fire Insurance
  When renting a room on the private market, make sure you subscribe a fire insurance. Unless it is stated in the rent agreement that your landlord has subscribed a fire insurance for you, you agree with the terms of the fire insurance and your landlord provides you with an insurance certificate naming you as insured party for the duration of the lease. Moreover, it is recommended to contact an insurance company to subscribe an insurance for your personal belongings.

- Travel insurance
  This insurance policy can be taken out through the following URL (see forms): https://www.ugent.be/en/administration/insurances/students.htm
INSURANCE BY GHENT UNIVERSITY

When you are officially registered at Ghent University as a student you are automatically insured, within policy conditions, for personal accident cover during university activities and on the way from and to university activities, as well as for civil liability during and through university activities.

In case an excursion extra muros or stay abroad is required within the framework of your studies or research: it is your personal responsibility to inform your contact person (staff member of Ghent University) within your own faculty as to receive written consent (obligatory!).

Necessary administrative steps
RULES AND REGULATIONS

Mutual consideration for each individual and respect for the university service providers and infrastructure are expected of each member of Ghent University and its guests.
EDUCATION AND EXAMINATION CODE

As a registered international student, staff or guest of Ghent University you agree to comply with the rules and regulations under which the University, its staff and students must operate. The principles of the regulations underpinning these are set out in a number of codes and regulations.

The Education and Examination Code affects every student as well as PhD students, as it covers a wide variety of important topics, such as:
- Structure of the academic year
- Description of the academic system
- Enrolment regulations
- Teaching and evaluation methods
- Rules pertaining to a study programme and/or course unit
- Provisions for educational activities
- Examination regulations
- Rules pertaining to a PhD at Ghent University
- Fraud and irregularities (e.g. plagiarism)
- Complaints and appeals

Every year the Education and Examination Code is reviewed and approved by the Board of Governors. Therefore all articles are valid and binding for one academic year.

You can find the Education and Examination Code on the following website; an English translation is available on the website www.ugent.be/en/teaching/studentadmin/OEREnglish
OTHER REGULATIONS

It is important to realize that in addition to the Education and Examination Code there are other regulations that may affect you during your stay at Ghent University:

− Regulations of the University Halls of Residence
  These regulations deal with the rental matters, the use of the infrastructure, and not in the least, with the appropriate social behaviour (sanctions may be imposed).
  International students and guests staying in the University Halls will receive a copy when signing the contract. This document is an integral part of the tenancy agreement.

− Disciplinary Code for Students (in Dutch only)
  There is also a disciplinary code for staff.

− Rules of proper use of the Ghent University network and the computers controlled by the ICT Department

− Laboratory and workplace regulation

− Acknowledgement of confidentiality and assignment of rights (visiting researchers)
  Ghent University labour regulations
  www.ugent.be/intranet/nl/reglementen/werken/algemeen/arbeidsreglement_eng Faculties may have their own specific regulations, for example in laboratories. You can always ask a copy in your faculty.
GRIEVANCES AND COMPLAINTS

STUDENTS

Students are encouraged to raise any complaints or grievances with an appropriate member of staff at the earliest opportunity, as complaints that are dealt with informally at an early stage have the best chance of being resolved effectively.

Where informal procedures have failed to resolve the problem, students may bring a complaint under the attention of the faculty ombudsperson.

- The faculty ombudsperson treats complaints from students and staff members relating to the implementation of the Education and Examination Code and/or the provisions governing the legal position of students and/or situations which are perceived to be unfair within the wider framework of educational or examination events. They are bound to discretion.

- If the problem is or can not be resolved through their mediation or within the faculty, students can contact the institutional ombuds service. The latter can be contacted via ombuds@ugent.be
In certain situations, students may file an internal appeal with the Internal Appeals Commission, as stipulated in article 100 of the Education and Examination Code (see p. 32).

DOCTORAL STUDENTS

Your dissertation supervisor (promotor) plays a central role as the person coaching your doctoral research efforts. If, for some reason, you are unable to communicate successfully with your dissertation supervisor, please do not hesitate to speak to a faculty ombudsperson for doctoral students.

www.ugent.be/en/ghentuniv/contact/complaints.htm

Anonymous complaints cannot be accepted. All complaints will be treated confidentially.
In addition to the necessary administrative steps, some more practical matters will need to be arranged during the first days of your stay.
ACCOMMODATION

Finding accommodation prior to your arrival is not obvious. If you have not yet found a place to live upon arrival in Ghent, we strongly advise you to sort this out immediately.

You can rent a room provided by Ghent University or a room from a private landlord. Prices for a room or a studio on the private housing market vary between € 363 and € 490 per month depending on the area and the type of accommodation.

UNIVERSITY HALLS OF RESIDENCE

There are different application procedures for exchange, degree and PhD students. Prices and locations may differ. All information is available on the website of the Housing Office.

If you rent a room in a university residence you should keep in mind that:
- You need to keep your room clean and tidy.
- The furniture in the rooms and communal halls cannot be moved or removed.
- Decoration of the room is only permitted on the cork wall.
- It is forbidden to keep or to bring animals in the room or in any other place of the building. Visits are allowed but visitors cannot spend the night nor make use of any facilities.
- As from 23:00, complete silence must be observed in the entire building.
- When violating the stipulations of the internal rules and regulations, noise nuisance, theft, alcohol- and drug abuse, ...
students can be sanctioned by the Vice-chancellor (on the advice of the Board of Directors). The sanction can be: a warning, cancellation of the tenancy agreement or temporary / permanent expulsion.

July, August, September and February: open till 22:00, and also during weekends, continuously from 10:00 – 22:00

PRIVATE HOUSING

Please take into account that it won’t be easy to find a suitable living unit for a short stay. Not all landlords are willing to sign tenancy agreements for less than 12 months.

If you want to look for accommodation yourself, you should search for notice boards stating ‘te huur’ ‘studentenkamers te huur’ (student room for rent). ‘Room hunting’ may take a couple of days of walking around the city. Feel free to ask the Housing Office for a list of addresses of ‘short term rentals’. Keep in mind that you will be required to pay a one to three months’ deposit upon arrival. Please contact the landlord yourself.

Practicalities
TRANSPORT

Getting around can be a particular challenge for Ghent University’s many students and employees, as Ghent University does not have one single campus. The university buildings are spread all over town. The most popular—and advisable—way to move around in Ghent is by bike.

RENTING A BIKE

De Fietsambassade
gives Ghent University students the opportunity to rent a bike for a few months or even one year (€ 15 for 3 months / € 45 for 12 months).

What do you need to bring along when you want to rent a bike:
- student card
- your passport or identity card
- a € 60 deposit and the rental price in cash

Bicycle rent

Tuesday: 12:00 – 16:00
Wednesday: 08:00 – 12:00
Thursday: 10:00 – 12:00 and from 13:00 – 18:45
Friday closed
In case of theft of your bicycle: report it to the police within 24 hours, and try to notify “De Fietsambassade” as soon as possible.

Bicycles that are not safely secured or seem to be neglected are often picked up again by “De Fietsambassade”. Bicycles outside the city centre and in the Ghent suburbs are subject to the same treatment. Such initiatives are taken to prevent bicycles from being stolen or rusting away.

If you aren’t planning to use your bike regularly or if you are looking to rent an extra bike for friends and family visiting other options are available:
- Max Mobiel http://www.max-mobiel.be/

ANTI-THEFT TIPS

Bicycle thefts happen every day... The use of the bicycle lock is necessary to discourage thieves, but it’s even better to use an extra padlock.

Some more tips:
- Always secure your bike (even if you leave it for just a second).
- Secure your bike to a pole, fence, bike stand etc. (never to a traffic sign).
- Use a sturdy lock.
- Make sure that removing your bike takes some time (e.g. use two locks).
- Leave your bike at a safe and visible place (preferably a bike shed or stand). Avoid dark or abandoned places.
BICYCLE REPAIR

Please check the latest opening hours of the different repair points on the following webpage:
www.defietsambassade.gent

Ghent University staff and students can make use of several bike repair shops. All shops are open to Ghent University students.

You can repair your bike using the repair shop’s tools and/or buy new parts at a very reasonable price. There’s always someone at hand to help and advise you.

BUSES AND TRAMS

Public transport in the city is well-organized. Buses and trams ride from early in the morning till late at night.

To determine the price of a bus ride, Ghent and its surroundings have been divided into zones. The price for a ticket depends on the number of zones that you travel through. You can choose between several ways of paying for your ride. Have a close look at the different tickets that are offered according to your transport needs: prices may differ considerably (prices below with reservation to changes made by the transport company De Lijn).

Public transport in Belgium is managed on the regional level. Hence Brussels and Wallonia have separate public transport companies. For this reason the tickets are only valid in Flanders.

- Single journey: in the city centre a ticket is valid for 1 hour including changes of bus/tram without restriction, price: € 3. If you buy a ticket by SMS, you pay € 2,15 (send 'DL' to 4884). Your cheapest option (€ 1,80) is to use the 'De Lijn' app.

- Lijnkaart: in case you will be using city buses or trams more regularly you are better off buying a 'Lijnkaart' (€ 15 in presale for 10 rides), which you stamp each time you make a trip. Valid in all Flemish cities.

- Day Ticket: allows you to travel through Ghent on any tram or bus for the whole day; costs € 8 (or € 6 in presale). Also 3-day & 5-day tickets available.
- Buzzy Pass or Omnipas: If you will be using the buses and trams for a longer period, it might be a lot cheaper to buy a ‘season ticket’: a ‘Buzzy Pazz’ or an ‘Omnipas’. Both cards are valid on any bus and tram of ‘De Lijn’. You can also use these season tickets in other Flemish cities and at the Belgian coast.

ROUTE PLANNER

Type in the address of departure and arrival, the time and date and this will give you the best travel routes (also includes trains).
More information can be obtained from the shops of ‘De Lijn’ (‘Lijnwinkels’):

- Korenmarkt (Cataloniëstraat 4):
  Monday to Saturday 10:00 – 12:15 and from 12:30 – 17:00
- Sint-Pieters station:
  Monday to Friday 07:00 – 19:00
- Zuid (Woodrow Wilsonplein):
  Monday to Friday 07:00 – 19:00

TRAIN

In Ghent there are two railway stations: Gent Sint-Pieters (main station) and Gent Dampoort – which allow smooth access to the whole Belgian railway network.

- If you are younger than 26, and planning to travel frequently by train it is more interesting to buy a GO Pass (valid for 1 year – 10 rides (2nd class single) between two Belgian stations; € 52); so one single journey only costs € 5,2.
  It’s possible to use the Go Pass with several people at the same time. The Go Pass is particularly advantageous for longer journeys.
- If you’re 26 or older, you can use the RAIL Pass. This card gives the same benefits as the GO Pass, but it costs € 77.
  More information: www.b-rail.be
- Also ask for weekend-tickets in the stations. They are 50% cheaper!
You can travel by high-speed train from Brussels to:

- Paris, Amsterdam, Aachen, Köln, Schiphol, Den Haag, Rotterdam, etc. with the Thalys train: www.thalys.com
- London, Ashford, Lille with the Eurostar train: www.eurostar.com

LONG DISTANCE TRAVELLING

Share a ride at Blablacar.be: to travel to the neighbouring countries for less money. You can easily book your seat online and travel from city A to city B, even last minute. Weekends are perfect to find a ride, as a lot of people go home for a weekend after the work week.

Long distance buses: Flixbus, Eurolines, Megabus and other companies have a broad range of destinations in Belgium, France, The Netherlands, Germany, Spain... Check out their promotions and get away for less than € 10.

AEROPLANE

Belgium has a number of commercial airports but the 2 major international airports are Brussels Airport (Brussel Nationale Luchthaven) in Zaventem and Charleroi Airport (aka: ‘Brussels South’).
MONEY & BANKING

It is safer to deposit your money in a bank rather than leaving large amounts of cash in your room, even if the door is locked, or walking around with it.

For some international students it is necessary to open a bank account shortly after arrival in order to be able to receive the grant they are entitled to.

The Belgian currency is the Euro (€, EUR). There are 8 coins and 7 notes:
- coins: coins of € 1 and 2 and coins of 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 eurocents;
- notes: notes of € 500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5.

All prices in Belgium include VAT and service.

There are many branches of different banks in Ghent. Most banks are open on weekdays from 09:00 – 12:00 and from 14:00 – 16:00. Some banks are open on Saturday morning and have late opening hours once a week. During the weekend, you can use the ‘Bancontact/Mister Cash’ cash dispensers (ATM) to withdraw money.

At most banks however it will not be possible to open a bank account if you are only staying for a few months. Most banks require a minimum stay of 5/6 months. Please contact the bank in question to ask about the requirements.
You can consult a list of banks in the centre of Ghent on the following website: www.goldenpages.be/banks/ghent

BANK ACCOUNT

To open a bank account you will need your passport or identity card and an address in Ghent.

It can also be useful to take your student card or personnel card with you. Some banks, moreover, require the document ‘Annex 15’ which you receive after having registered at the Migration Office of the City of Ghent (see p. 23).

FOREIGN EXCHANGE & MONEY TRANSFERS

In Ghent you will find a number of places for exchange and money transactions. Most banks also provide these services.

If you need to send money to your home country, you can contact one of the following offices.

Goffin Change (Western Union)
Henegouwenstraat 27
Monday to Friday: 09:15 – 17:45
Saturday: 10:00 – 16:30

Travelex nv – Camrail (Western Union)
Steendam 108
Monday to Saturday: 08:30 – 17:45
COST OF LIVING

Living standards are quite high in Belgium. How much money you actually spend will of course depend on your life style and spending habits. The costs for housing, for example, may differ considerably.

If you plan to travel a lot during your stay here, you will of course need a budget for extra travel expenses. Remember that during the first month of your stay there may be extra expenses for insurance, temporary accommodation and deposits, clothing, equipment (kitchen utensils, furniture, etc.) and other things. For an indication of prices you can always have a look at the following website: www.ugent.be/en/living > Cost of living in Belgium.
TAXES

During your stay you may receive tax letters or other payment requests (all in Dutch).

PROVINCIAL TAX

Everyone who is domiciled in Ghent needs to pay provincial tax. A tax letter will be sent to your address in Ghent. You do not need to fill in any forms – a transfer form with a set payable amount is being sent to your address.

INCOME TAX

All adults holding a residence permit are sent an annual income declaration. Spring is traditionally tax time in Belgium, so watch out for either the ‘manilla’ colored envelope containing the annual income tax declaration or the provincial tax transfer form. Students who did not work, can send the tax letter back, mentioning 'not applicable'.

Students who did work (employment contract) will have to fill out the tax form. However, they will not be taxed on revenues from allowances or gifts from family members.
FLEMISH CARE INSURANCE

You may receive a payment request in Dutch for the Flemish Care Insurance ('Vlaamse Zorgverzekering'). This system provides those who need long-term care with part or full cover for the costs of non-medical care offered by services, professional care providers or informal care providers.

However, most international students are exempt from joining this insurance and therefore from paying this tax, by sending a proof of enrolment / registration at Ghent University for the current tax year, if they meet the following conditions:

− one is a student or researcher (or family member) with a temporary residence permit
− one comes from a state outside the EU, the EEA and not from Switzerland (their citizens are automatically exempt).

WASTE MANAGEMENT

Normal garbage
= throw everything that is not collected selectively in the official IVAGO yellow waste bag (yoghurt cups, plastic bags, food leftovers, butter dishes, ...). This is collected every week.

PMD
= Plastic bottles and flasks, Metal packaging and Drink cartons.
Carefully selected packaging waste can be recycled.
− You are obliged to use the official blue IVAGO waste bags.
− These cheaper bags can be purchased in most supermarkets, local shops and the City Shop (Botermarkt 17A).
− Collected every 2 weeks.

GFT
= vegetables, fruits and garden waste.
− You can use a green IVAGO container with electronic chip.
  This must be ordered at IVAGO or www.ivago.be.
  You can find the prices on the website.
− Collected every 2 weeks. From the beginning of 2019 on, food leftovers will be allowed in the GFT+-fraction.
Glass
- transparent empty glass bottles, bowls and flasks.
  - In a plastic bucket or solid plastic box with closed bottom and lateral walls. Not in wooden crates or cardboard boxes!
  - Collected once a month.

Paper and cardboard
- newspapers, magazines, books, cardboard boxes, etc.
  - In a closed cardboard box or tied together with string.
  - Collected once a month.

Batteries
Make use of the collection points in any shop that sells batteries.

Collection containers
There are many collection boxes in supermarkets, shops and public places. Student houses with over 10 residential units have special collection containers for household waste, glass, paper and cardboard, PMD and possibly GFT (Vegetable, Fruit and Garden Waste). Ask your caretaker or landlord for the correct collection dates. Note that you have to put your household waste and PMD in the official IVAGO bags. Place these bags in the correct container. Students staying in the University Halls of Residence have to take into account specific waste management instructions of which they will be clearly informed.

Display the collection calendar in a clearly visible place in your student room! Don’t leave bulky waste or electrical appliances in corridors, kitchens, … Bring it to the appropriate area! Don’t leave rubbish at the emergency exits/staircases!

SECOND HAND SHOPS

You can buy second-hand goods at very reasonable prices at your local Kringloop-winkel. These ‘Kringwinkels’ sell original, cheap and solid second-hand stuff at very good prices. Furniture, cooking utensils, decoration materials, clothing, bicycles, … Every day, Kringwinkels collect new goods which guarantees a constantly changing offer.
Moreover, the goods are conveniently exposed and arranged according to product group. More information on shopping in Ghent: groceries, second hand shops, clothing, electronics, etc. is available on: www.visitgent.be/en/see-do

In the Ghent University second hand shop you can find office furniture at very democratic prices.

FOOD & DRINKS

STUDENT RESTAURANTS AND CAFETERIAS

There are several student restaurants and cafeterias at different locations, all close to the university buildings (cfr. Ghent University City Map). The service and food they offer is of a high quality, while the prices are the lowest in town (average price € 4 ). Dieticians make sure that the menus are varied, healthy and balanced. Vegetarian alternatives are available (no halal or kosher kitchen).

You can pay with cash at the checkout or, quicker and safer still, using your Ghent University student card. Your balance can be simply topped up using epurse.ugent.be. Check your current balance on your latest receipt or via the same website.

The student restaurants are open from Monday to Friday. In weekends Ghent University restaurants are closed. The student restaurants may have different opening hours (see below). During Ghent University holidays some restaurants may close: check the website!

In the evening only the following student restaurant is open:

In the city of Ghent you can find a lot of nice eating-houses and restaurants, see www.visitgent.be/en/food-drink
Ghent University Library comprises the Book Tower, 10 faculty libraries and multiple departmental and seminar libraries, spread all over Ghent.

The Book Tower is one of Ghent's iconic towers which was designed by the world-renowned architect Henry van de Velde. The ‘Book Tower’ acts as a treasury house for the rich cultural heritage that was both collected by and entrusted to the university (including ancient manuscripts, unique publications, atlas maps, photographs, architectural plans, coins, etchings, drawings and ephemerae). Through scan-on-demand services all this wealth is disclosed fast and easy. Moreover, as a Google-books partner more than 250,000 books are ready for use 24/7.

To discover the rich collections of Ghent University libraries it's best to start on the website: http://lib.ugent.be. It is also the gateway for all you library questions via mail, chat, telephone...

Ghent University provides access to over 35,000 electronic journals, almost 1 million e-books and no less than 110 databases. If you know which database or journal to consult, the library website can guide you within the electronic world of scientific communication and cultural heritage. If you don't know yet, we suggest you try Google Scholar as a discovery tool.

GHENT UNIVERSITY INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY

GHENT UNIVERSITY ICT FACILITIES

The Department of Information and Communication Technology (DICT) provides information to students and staff members about UGentNet, the Ghent University account and e-mail environment, the online learning environment, software, disk space and web space and phone services.

The most important topics are discussed briefly below. More detailed information can be found on the department’s web page: www.ugent.be/en/facilities/ict/
YOUR ACCOUNT

You receive your account data via email one day after registration, on condition that you agree to abide by the rules of proper use of the Ghent University network and the computers controlled by DICT. You can find these rules on the DICT helpdesk site.

As long as your registration or enrolment (at the central student administration) has not been completed successfully, you will not obtain your Ghent University account. Please do make sure that you complete the administrative process in time to avoid delays.

The account data include your (university) e-mail address, your login name and your password.

E-MAIL

A Ghent University e-mail address looks like this: name.surname@ugent.be.

Via owa.ugent.be – you can immediately manage your e-mail, using any internet connection; no configuration is needed.
OASIS – EDUCATION AND STUDENT ADMINISTRATION SYSTEM

Oasis is the IT-system that supports the processes and activities concerning the education and student administration. By means of the Oasis web application (available at http://oasis.ugent.be) students can consult information on their enrolment(s), change address and print certificates (see p. 20). It is also the main tool for the management of the curriculum (courses per academic year).

MINERVA – ONLINE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

At Ghent University, the official digital learning environment Minerva is used to provide information and course material and to optimize communication between staff and students. Minerva can only be accessed by students and staff who have a valid Ghent University account, via minerva.ugent.be

UGENTNET

If you have an account, you can access the UGentNet and the Belgian research network BELNET. Part of the university network is accessible to all. Some internal Ghent University information is only available after you have logged in with your login name and password. A number of Ghent University ICT facilities can only be used from computers connected to UGentNet.
Students staying in one of the University Halls of Residence, have direct access to password.ugent.be, the helpdesk website, Minerva and Athena. For all other applications they need to set up a VPN connection to obtain access. Please note that Internet traffic from rooms in a University Hall of Residence is limited in volume.

On locations outside the university campus, provided that they have a working internet connection, students can set up a VPN connection to get access to UGentNet.

The VPN connection is necessary for safety reasons, for example to consult internal information on the helpdesk website and the library website, to mount a network drive, to change passwords, to use Athena, etc.

All necessary information about how to set up a Virtual Private Network (VPN) can be found through the link below: helpdesk.ugent.be/vpn/en

In a number of Ghent University buildings it is possible to set up a wireless ("wifi") connection. At Ghent University we have Eduroam.

ATHENA AND SOFTWARE

Having an account allows you to use software offered on Athena. The software you can use is delivered from central servers and is not installed on your device.
PC ROOMS

In all faculties and in a few central locations PC rooms have been set up. Most can be used for both classical sessions and individual study.

The operating system on the PCs is Windows, in English or in Dutch, as chosen by the faculty. Additionally, general and field specific software is installed by the Department of Information and Communication Technology (DICT). More info can be found on: helpdesk.ugent.be/publiccomputer/en

WHERE?

Printing, copying and scanning can be done in PC rooms and libraries. helpdesk.ugent.be/publiccomputer/en

CENTRAL DISK SPACE

With your account comes central disk space on which you can save files. By default you get 2 network drives:
- Personal disk space: your “homedrive”, H:\-drive or G:\home
- Personal web space; on a webserver, meant for setting up a site: your W:\-drive or G:\WWW

To use your network drives you have to “mount” them. How you do this is explained on: helpdesk.ugent.be/netdisk/en/bestand_mount.php
PERSONAL WEBSITE

You can set up a personal website: you have personal web space at your disposal and a URL of the form [http://users.ugent.be/~loginname].

More info can be found on helpdesk.ugent.be/webhosting/en/hoe.php

STUDENT JOBS

First of all some words of caution: combining academic studies and a student job is not always easy. Moreover, finding a job is quite difficult as an international student.

In case you decide to look for a student job we recommend you to contact the Job Service personally. At the same time they will also offer you valuable advice on your rights and responsibilities.

Before making use of the Job Service registration service, you have to register on the Job Service’s website. Use your login and password (from DICT, see p. 66):

Theoretically every student is allowed to work, on condition that some formalities are fulfilled.

All students from the EU-countries + Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Switzerland need:
- proof of registration at the Foreigners’ Register (see p. 21) and Belgian national number
- a bank account

Students from other countries need:
- proof of registration at the Foreigners’ Register (see p. 21)
- Belgian national number
- a bank account
- to apply for a Work Permit C at the services of the Dienst Economische migratie Provincie Oost-Vlaanderen (it will take about two weeks before it arrives)

The employment contract the student receives, will indicate the gross amount of the monthly wage. The net amount the student actually receives will be less, since taxes and social security are deducted (see p. 52).

PHD STUDENTS
PhD students cannot turn to the Job Service.

You are not allowed to work without a work permit or a contract!
TOP LEAGUE SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Regardless of the sports discipline involved, students qualify to be awarded special status if they first and foremost comply with one of the following requirements:
− be recognised as a top athlete by the BOIC or Sport Vlaanderen, or by their corresponding national sport organisations;
− be considered as a top athlete or as a promising young athlete by their own sport federation;
− meet the standards held out for taking part in the Universiade or the University World Championships.

Moreover, this category of students is required to complete at least 5 training or competition sessions on a weekly basis. Supplementary requirements apply for each sports discipline.

CHILD CARE

Combining your studies or employment with family life is not an easy task. If you have small children, you have the additional worry of finding the best possible child care. There are long waiting lists everywhere, particularly for babies.
Ghent University offers its students and personnel child care options for children aged 0 to 3. You can always contact our university child care centres or have a look on the website for more information concerning the policy on child care, applications, priority regulations, etc … Please find below an overview of the child care options which Ghent University is providing:

GHENT UNIVERSITY INITIATIVES: CHILDREN AGED FROM 0 TO 3

The children can stay there up to they become 3 years old. This period can be extended by the duration of the school holidays following this quarter.

DAY CARE CENTRES (‘KINDERDAGVERBLIJF’)

Ghent University has 2 day care centres under its own management:
- De Sterre – 42 children
  Krijgslaan 281, Ghent, building S 37 – campus De Sterre
- Heymans – 84 children
  Stalhof 8, Ghent – near Kantienberg site

Ghent University has also 4 day care centres managed by Partena Kinderopvang (private partner for childcare of the university).
Partena Kinderopvang (private partner for childcare of the university):
- De Stadskabouter – 32 children
  Corneel Heymanslaan 10, Ghent – campus Ghent University Hospital
- De Boskabouter – 14 children
  Potaardestraat 20, Melle – ‘De Bosrand’ site in 9090 Melle-Gontrode
- Het Koetshuis – 14 children
  Sint-Pietersnieuwstraat 136A, Ghent
- De Parkkabouter – 32 children
  Technologiepark Gebouw 901 9052 Zwijnaarde

The children in the day care centres are integrated into small groups of about 14 children, under the supervision of 2 child care professionals.

BABY MINDERS (‘ONTHAALOUDERS’)

Baby minders are individual childcare professionals who are part of the recognized and subsidised Partena child care family network. They are situated in the centre of Ghent and its surrounding towns (Drongen, Gentbrugge, Laarne, Ledeberg, Merelbeke, Oostakker, Sint Amandsberg, Wondelgem, Zwijnaarde).

FIRST AID

Accidents may happen, problems may occur. You may be confronted with health-related or personal problems, but also technical or safety problems or other kinds of situations that need acute or short-term solving.
Read this section carefully: it contains the first steps towards some solutions.
GHENT UNIVERSITY EMERGENCY CENTRE

This Centre reacts to technical incidents (power failure, damage to infrastructure, leakage, stuck elevators, etc.) safety and security incidents (fire, accident, aggression, theft, excessive noise etc.) in the university.

The Ghent University Emergency Centre is open 24/7 and is located at Home Vermeylen (Stalhof 6).

- In case of an emergency, call 88 (via an internal Ghent University phone) or +32 9 264 88 88
- In case of a non-emergency, call +32 9 264 71 25
- Try to prepare your call by thinking of ‘who, where, when, what and why’.

HEALTH MATTERS

GENERAL PRACTITIONERS (GP)

In the unhappy event of health problems, you can turn to the university’s Medical Service for Students, where a group of GPs runs a practice for students. They are well-acquainted with the student’s medical needs. Also for small surgery and gynaecological consultations students can make use of this service. Consultations are held every working day: during the day an appointment is required, but in the evening there are consultations on a ‘first come, first serve’ basis. In case you have, please take the labels from a local health fund or your insurance certificate with you to the consultation (see p. 25). In most cases however it will be sufficient to present your national ID number (‘rijksregister-nummer’). This is the number which you can find on your electronic residence card.

Note: the GPs are not available via e-mail (neither for appointments, nor for diagnosis or prescriptions).

MEDICAL SERVICE

- During holiday periods: www.ugent.be/medicalservice

Hospital emergency services are expensive.
If your condition is not immediately life-threatening, you should try consulting a GP first.
Students or staff can indeed also contact a general practitioner elsewhere in town. It is recommended to consult a GP first instead of going immediately to a specialist or the emergency service of the hospital:

- GPs are easier to reach.
- A GP will keep your medical history on file. This is important since information from previous medical examinations may be relevant to your present condition. It also means that the GP does not need to repeat medical tests or examinations you may already have had. This can save you a lot of money, time, and possible discomfort.
- With certain medical conditions, it is not always clear which specialist is most qualified. On your own, you might have to try several specialists before finding the right one, whereas a GP can quickly diagnose your problem and refer you to the proper specialist.

Information about sexual health / family planning:
SENSOA  www.sensoa.be
PROOF OF REGISTRATION AT A LOCAL HEALTH FUND: LABELS / NATIONAL ID NUMBER (‘RIJKSREGISTERNUMMER’)

When you take out health insurance via a standard health care insurance company (‘ziekenfonds/mutualiteit’), you will receive a page of detachable official address labels (e.g. necessary when medical samples are taken).

Please take your labels and national ID number (mentioned on your electronic residence card) with you every time you go to the pharmacy, a doctor, a hospital, or to the health insurance office. If you don't have proof of your registration at a local health fund with you, you will have to pay the full amount at the pharmacy. In this case, ask for the Annex 30 for reimbursement so that you can be reimbursed by the local health fund.

If you need to go to hospital and you don't have proof of your registration at a local health fund with you, you will get an invoice for the total cost. Don’t pay it – simply bring it to your local health fund, and they will take care of it (but you will have to pay some costs yourself). But beware: if you present yourself at the emergency room, you will be expected to pay immediately (a fee of ca. € 160). A possible reimbursement will only happen after your local health fund has received all invoices.
DENTISTS

Basic dental care costs are reimbursed up to a certain extent by the local health funds (‘mutualiteiten’).

Keep in mind that specialized dental care can be quite expensive. For further details about which dental care costs can be (partially) reimbursed, please check with your health insurance company. A list of all dentists in and around Ghent can be found in the Yellow Pages: www.goldenpages.be > Dentists > Gent or on the website www.tandarts.be Dentists with weekend and night duty (emergency cases only): T +32 903 399 69 (€ 1.50/min).

PHARMACIES

Medication and certain health products are available from a local pharmacy. A pharmacy supplies two kinds of medication: medication prepared by the pharmacist himself and medication which is industrially produced.

Pharmacies are subject to strict rules. For example, they are not allowed to supply certain medication without a medical prescription.
Medication on prescription cannot be delivered by a Belgian pharmacy on the basis of a prescription from abroad. You will need to go to a GP or hospital to ask for a new medical prescription.

Ask the GP and pharmacist for generic medication. Generic products are characteristically lower in price than those with brand names and sold in plain, cheap packaging.

Opening hours / urgencies:
Pharmacies are usually closed on Saturdays and Sundays. A limited number of pharmacists are on duty during the weekend and at night for patients in urgent need of medication.

In that case, however, an extra fee will be charged. A list of on-duty pharmacists is displayed at every (closed) pharmacy.

PSYCHOLOGICAL HELP

Students who are at odds with their studies because of personal distress and/or ineffective study habits can turn to the Student Counselling Office. Psychologists, well-acquainted with study problems or psychological problems that students may have, are available for counselling. In consultation with the student an appropriate treatment can be started or, when necessary, the student can be referred to a specialized psychologist for further therapy.

LANGUAGE COURSES

No better way to explore the Flemish culture than by learning the local language: Dutch. By doing so, you will join more than 23 million Dutch-speaking people all over the world.

The University Language Centre (UCT) offers excellent Dutch courses at various levels. It also organizes language courses in Arabic, German, English, French, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish, Swedish, Turkish, Flemish Sign Language and Latin. The Language Centre guarantees high-quality University language education by experienced teachers. The sessions take place in relatively small groups to guarantee an interactive approach. Most levels start at the beginning of each semester. Students pay reduced fees (more or less half of the price). For more information such as prices and schedules, we refer you to the UCT website: www.uct.ugent.be Please keep in mind that payment is only possible with bank or credit card or via bank transfer.
LANGUAGE SUPPORT

The official language of instruction at Ghent University is Dutch. However, a number of master courses are taught in English. If you feel insecure about your knowledge of English or Dutch, you can turn to the University Language Centre (UCT) for a wide range of courses of academic language skills, both in English and in Dutch. For certain Dutch and English courses, ECTS credits can be obtained by certain groups of students, including PhD-students (when included in their Learning Agreement). Students who are on an exchange within the framework of a bilateral agreement are entitled to a reduction when they register for a Dutch course at the UCT.

LOW COUNTRIES STUDIES

Low Countries Studies is a post-academic acculturation programme for both exchange students and international degree students as well as international researchers and staff wanting to learn more about Flanders, Belgium and the Netherlands. The students get a broad overview of various aspects of Flemish society (language, art and culture, history, politics, the media, the Flemish landscape, town and country planning, ethics, etc …) and everyday customs in Flanders. The programme consists of a series of 12 lectures in English and a number of extra activities.

If you have a valid Ghent University student card, the programme is free, but you still need to register officially. Researchers and personnel without a student card need to take out a general Ghent University student registration. This costs about 238,30 EUR (annually adjusted).

The Low Countries Studies programme does not lead to a degree, only to a certificate. The programme is not a full-time degree programme and cannot be used to gain access to university studies. If you are a student, you need to follow it as an additional programme. Since this is a post-academic programme, there are no ECTS credits to be obtained. The programme starts in the second semester (February – end of May). From mid-November you can find all necessary information as well as the procedure of registration on the website: www.ugent.be/lw/lcs
If you want to know more about daily life in Ghent, we refer you to the following web pages: www.ugent.be/en/living

‘Code of Good Practice: Living together as a Ghent University community’ Ghent University distinguishes itself as a socially committed and pluralistic university in a broad international perspective. However, living, studying and conducting research might be different in a foreign country. We therefore offer some guidance which may be useful to make you feel more at home at Ghent University and in Ghent through our leaflet ‘Living together as a Ghent University community – a code of good practice’ (PDF) which can be downloaded from this webpage: www.ugent.be/en/living/everyday/conduct.htm

ACADEMIC SUPPORT
THE ACADEMIC YEAR –
EXAMINATION PERIODS – ECTS

The academic year at Ghent University is divided into two semesters. The first Semester ends by the end of December, and is followed by examinations in January-February (4 weeks, starting after the winter break). The exams of the second semester are held in June (5 weeks).

ECTS

Ghent University has adopted the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS). The number of ECTS credits per course unit can be found in the course catalogue. 1 ECTS credit equals 25–30 hours of study. A complete year of study in Belgium is normally 60 ECTS. The number of ECTS credits assigned to a course unit is not related to the number of class hours. The credits give an indication of the total number of hours you are expected to spend on the course unit (including preparing for and attending classes, practical or lab work, reading books, writing papers, studying for tests and exams, etc). The number of contact hours you have in class depends on the nature of the course unit. For questions on specific course units and the ECTS credits allocated to them, you contact the FCI Administrator (see p. 113) of the faculty concerned.
EXAMINATION PERIODS

Examinations are held in January and June. A course unit must be fully completed before an exam can take place. However, full-year course units take longer than only one semester. Examinations for these courses always take place in June.

At the end of August / beginning of September a second examination period is organized. Students can use this period to retake (failed) courses from both the first and the second semester.

Examinations can be oral and/or written. This is clearly described in the ECTS course specifications in the Ghent University course catalogue of the current academic year: https://studiegids.ugent.be/2018/EN/

Grades received for practical exercises and the results of written and oral tests during the year may also be taken into account for the final result, as part of a system of permanent evaluation. For each course unit the evaluation/examination method is indicated in the course catalogue, as well as the minimum requirements for awarding credit points.

Ghent University uses a grading system of 0–20 with intervals of 1 point. No half points are used. 10 to 20 are the passing marks, 0 to 9 are failing marks.

For more information on the academic system in the Education and Examination Code please check p. 32.
Grades obtained at Ghent University need to be converted to the grading scale of the sending institution. Ghent University fully supports grade conversion as stipulated in the 2015 ECTS users' guide.

The grade distribution, needed for such a conversion, is mentioned on the Transcript of Records. It is up to the sending institution to use this information for a fair conversion of grades obtained at Ghent.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR – HOLIDAY PERIODS – CLOSING DAYS

DOCTORAL SCHOOLS

The faculty grants admission to the PhD and, upon successful defence of the PhD dissertation, awards the PhD degree. PhD students are supported by their supervisors, who provide individual research coaching, as well as by the Doctoral Schools, which offer training in research.

There are five Doctoral Schools, all of which have a specific research focus:
- Arts, Humanities and Law
- Social and Behavioural Sciences
- Natural Sciences
- (Bioscience) Engineering
- Life Sciences and Medicine

All incoming PhD students enrolled at Ghent University automatically become a member of the Doctoral School of their choice. Registering for a Doctoral School offers some rewarding and interesting opportunities:

- The Doctoral Schools offer first class courses both within and beyond PhD students' immediate field of research. They complement research-related activities with relevant skills training.
- The Doctoral Schools furthermore organise cutting-edge guest lectures and information sessions, as well as several career events.
Detailed information (contact details, announcements of information sessions, etc.) can be found on the website of the Doctoral Schools: www.ugent.be/doctoralschools/en

When registering for the ‘Infosite Doctoral Schools’ on Minerva, PhD students will receive a monthly newsletter, in which all courses, activities and events of the Doctoral Schools are announced.
Ghent University’s eleven faculties are composed of more than 130 departments in total. These departments offer high-quality courses in all scientific disciplines, each inspired by innovative research. Over 43,000 students – 11 faculties – 9,000 staff members (excl. University Hospital Staff)

- Arts and Philosophy 4,559 students
- Law 3,793 students
- Sciences 2,818 students
- Medicine and Health Sciences 7,975 students
- Engineering and Architecture 5,369 students
- Economics and Business Administration 6,095 students
- Veterinary Medicine 2,076 students
- Psychology and Educational Sciences 4,607 students
- Bioscience Engineering 2,758 students
- Pharmaceutical Sciences 1,086 students
- Political and Social Sciences 1,991 students
Ghent University, abbreviated as UGent, is one of the major universities in the Dutch-speaking region of Europe. It distinguishes itself as a socially committed and pluralistic university in a broad international perspective.

Ghent University’s international image is reflected in the basic facts and figures and Ghent University’s attitude to and position in the major rankings.

LECTURES: WHERE?

For specific course details and location, check out your class timetable/schedule via your faculty’s website. Faculty activities may take place at different locations, which are not necessarily on the official address of the faculty.

EXAMINATIONS SCHEDULES

All students are automatically registered for both examination periods by way of their enrolment. Examination schedules are posted by the faculties on the public notice boards and/or sent out in electronic format.
FACULTY INTERNATIONAL OFFICES

Each faculty has a Committee for Internationalisation (FCI). The FCI-administrator of your faculty will be able to help you with most of your questions about academic matters (courses, exams, transcripts, professors, faculty regulations, deadlines, etc.).

LEISURE
SPORTS

Ghent University boasts a fully-equipped sports centre, with three large halls for indoor activities, a dojo (a hall especially designed to practise martial arts), two conference rooms, a 25 meter swimming pool, an instruction pool, two saunas, etc.

The university also offers individual supporting services and counselling for students who are actively involved in top-class sports. Special attention is also devoted to sports for disabled students.

The centre is located alongside the ‘Watersportbaan’ (rowing track), close to the Flanders Sports Arena, both the scene of several international meetings. It is situated in the neighborhood of the ‘Blaarmeersen’ (municipal sports and recreational area).

Some of the sports that can be pursued are: aerobics, aikido, aqua gym, badminton, basketball, diving, BBB, cross fit, handball, hockey, jazz dance, Krav Maga, jogging in group, judo, karate, kayaking, mini-football and five-a-side football, rugby, sailing, swimming, table tennis, tennis, volleyball, water polo, yoga.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND SOCIETIES

One of the best ways to get a feel of the place is to become involved in student activities, perhaps by joining one of the several dozen student societies. There are cultural groups (a theatre group also playing in other languages, photography class, painting class, orchestras, ...), workgroups on social and scientific issues, political and philosophical groups, specific international students’ associations, a home council for students living in the Home Kantienberg and a special Erasmus Student Network.

More information about all of these can be obtained from the Student House (Studentenhuis De Therminal, Campus Tweekerken, Hoveniersberg 24, 9000 Gent, T +32 9 264 70 85), which has leaflets giving full details of student societies – website: http://student.ugent.be.

A list of all Ghent University student societies can be found here: http://student.ugent.be/konventen/alle.php
ERASMUS STUDENT NETWORK GENT (ESN GENT)

Erasmus Student Network (ESN)

In 1989 the Erasmus Bureau invited 32 former Erasmus Students for an evaluation meeting in Gent, Belgium. This meeting was a starting point for Erasmus Student Network. The problems that became obvious in the evaluation were the main tasks for the founders of ESN to work on. Behind all this stood the idea of “students helping students”, which is still the most important motto of ESN volunteers.

The year 1990 marks the birth year of ESN Gent. Now it is one of the 530+ ESN sections across 40 countries in Europe. ESN is considered to be one of the biggest volunteer and student organizations in Europe with over 40,000 volunteers and students whom dedicate their time to service over 220,000 international students a year on a voluntary basis.

The mission of ESN Gent is to help all incoming international and exchange students and to make their stay in Ghent as pleasant as possible. In particular ESN Gent provides international and exchange students with local buddies. If you want to have a local buddy you can register for the buddy program via the ESN Gent website (http://esngent.org/buddies/). Once you have your buddy appointed he or she can give you valuable advice concerning all your preparations, show you around in Gent once you arrive and help you integrate in the city during your stay.
Joining ESN is a crucial step towards an unforgettable study period in Ghent, including social, cultural and sport activities as well as international weekend trips to Amsterdam, Paris, Berlin and many more. Joining ESN Gent is an excellent way to become integrated in the student life of Ghent and to get to know both local and international students.

If you would like to be able to participate in amazing ESN events, and get discounts at all ESN parties, just buy an ESNcard which costs only €15. With ESN Card you will be able to participate in ESN events and you will have a lot of useful discounts in Ghent (e.g. discounts on food and drinks in various places) and all over the globe (Ryanair discount)!

Find more information about the ESN Card on http://esncard.org! You will be able to buy your ESNcard during the Welcome Days or at any time in ESN Gent office!

If you want to be up-to-date with ESN oncoming activities or meet up other international and exchange students in Ghent you can join the ESN Gent 2018–2019 group on Facebook. In order to receive all information about discounts and events like ESN facebook page https://www.facebook.com/esn.gent. Once the new semester starts you will also have the option to sign up for ESN weekly e-mail.

See you very soon!

Poel 17, 9000 Gent

GHENT / PROVINCE OF EAST FLANDERS

Last but not least a word about the terrific and lively city you are studying in.

Ghent is a great city to be a student; at present days Ghent is even the biggest student town in Flanders attracting more than 80,000 students. It is a pleasant and lively city; cosy corners alternate with pleasant and busy shopping streets.

What’s more, it is also a strong cultural attraction pole with important music and film festivals, as well as a variegated theatre and performance scene. The University campus is spread all over the city, which enlivens the atmosphere.

In the 16th century Ghent was one of the most powerful cities in north western Europe. The city centre still breathes history and sociability. Nowadays it is the capital of the Province of East Flanders (part of the Dutch-speaking community) and the lively core of a large area (population approximately 250,000).
Situated at the intersection of 2 European traffic arteries (E17 and E40), Ghent is very easy to reach by car as well as by train; the seaside or Brussels and Antwerp are only half an hour away. Other cities like Paris, London, Amsterdam and Köln are within reach for a one-day city trip.

STUDENT IN GHENT: “INSANELY SMART”

The ‘international student officer’ of the City of Ghent acts as an intermediary between students, the institutions of higher education in Ghent and the city government. He/she functions as the ambassador of students in the city government, monitors current initiatives for and by students and encourages new ones.

The international student officer can be reached by email on the following address: jeroen.paeleman@stad.gent. Website for students in Ghent https://stad.gent/internationalstudent (switch to the English version!)
