Welcome Guide for international students

Ghent University
WELCOME GUIDE

FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
DEAR STUDENT

It is a real pleasure to welcome you to Ghent University. We are proud that you have chosen our university as your new academic environment.

We will do our utmost to make your stay in Ghent an exciting and valuable experience. Being one of the major universities in Belgium with over 44,000 students and ranked among the top-100 universities worldwide, our university can provide you with high-quality academic teaching, excellent infrastructure and a wide scope of student facilities. Embedded in the beautiful city of Ghent, you will be able to enjoy numerous social and cultural activities in the lively and creative atmosphere which is so typical for our city.

During the Welcome Days organised at the end of September and at the beginning of February, you will receive all information to guarantee an enriching and pleasant stay with us. Make sure to join us then and get off to a flying start!

I wish you a very happy and fruitful stay in Ghent and hope that you will feel at home with us.

Prof. dr. Rik Van de Walle, Rector Ghent University
For the academic year 2020–2021 the Welcome Days are held on the following dates:

1st SEMESTER
17-18 September 2020

2nd SEMESTER
4-5 February 2021
WELCOME DAYS

FOR NEW INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Ghent University is offering a warm welcome to all its new international students (both exchange and degree students, including PhD candidates). Right before the beginning of each semester the International Relations Office is organizing the Welcome Days. During this two-day programme the new international students at Ghent University receive a lot of practical information about the university where they will spend (part of) their studies.

A wide variety of sessions, including a visit to the faculty of their choice and a city walk in Ghent guided by Belgian students, are part of the programme.

Participation in the Welcome Days is free of costs but online registration is required. More information about the Welcome Days and the link to the online registration can be found on: www.ugent.be/en/administration/welcome-days/overview.htm

We hope that your first impression of Ghent University and the city of Ghent make you look forward to a pleasant and enriching stay here!

KEY TO USING THIS GUIDE

This guide has been written with the (arrival) needs of international students in mind. It is designed to answer practical questions about matters related to your arrival and concerning living and studying in Ghent. It will prove useful to you upon arrival at our university and remain a reference tool during your stay. It might be a good idea to keep it close at hand.

This guide is directed towards the following categories of international students:

− Degree students: study at Ghent University with the intention to obtain a degree awarded by Ghent University.
− Exchange students: remain enrolled at their home university and spend a study period at Ghent University within the framework of their study at their home university.

At the PhD level we distinguish:

− PhD candidate: perform doctoral studies and research at Ghent University with the intention to obtain a PhD degree awarded by Ghent University.
− Exchange PhD candidates: remain enrolled at their home university and spend a training, study, internship or research period at Ghent University within the framework of their PhD study at their home university.

Depending on the category to which you belong, certain administrative steps may differ. For this reason the distinction is made whenever necessary in this guide.

For more information about your status as a degree PhD candidate at Ghent University, please check: www.ugent.be/en/work/phd

THE FOLLOWING INSURANCE IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

− Insurance Civil Liability Private Life
You might need it when (accidentally) hurting other persons or damaging other people's property during your private life.

− Fire Insurance
When renting a room on the private market, make sure you subscribe a fire insurance. Unless it is stated in the rent agreement that your landlord has subscribed a fire insurance for you, you agree with the terms of the fire insurance and your landlord provides you with an insurance certificate naming you as insured party for the duration of the lease. Moreover, it is recommended to contact an insurance company to subscribe an insurance for your personal belongings.

− Travel insurance
This insurance policy can be taken out through the following URL (see forms): https://www.ugent.be/en/administration/insurances/students.htm
NECESSARY ADMINISTRATIVE STEPS

Upon arrival, the following administrative steps MUST be fulfilled:

1. Registration / Enrolment at Ghent University
2. Insurance
3. Registration at the Migration Office
REGISTRATION/ENROLMENT AT GHENT UNIVERSITY

You are required to register as an exchange student or to enrol as a degree student at the Registrar's Office.

1. REGISTRATION EXCHANGE STUDENTS / EXCHANGE PHD CANDIDATES

You have received a Letter of Invitation, issued by the International Relations Office.

For registration, you need to bring your valid passport. A driving licence will not be accepted.

You will be registered as an exchange student and will receive:
- A student card, which will be activated the day after your registration.
- Your account information will be sent by email the day after your registration.
- A certificate of registration as an exchange student (both in Dutch and English), needed for your registration at the Migration Office of the City of Ghent.
2. ENROLMENT DEGREE STUDENTS (BACHELOR, MASTER, PHD)

You have received a Letter of Admission, issued by the Registrar’s Office.

For enrolment, you need to bring the following documents:
- The Letter of Admission in print.
- Your valid passport or identity card. A driving licence will not be accepted.
- Any other document mentioned on the Letter of Admission.

You will be enrolled as a degree student and will receive:
- A student card, which will be activated the day after your enrolment.
- Your account information will be sent by email the day after your enrolment.
- You can print your own certificate of enrolment (as soon as your account has been activated) from http://oasis.ugent.be.
- If you are a PhD candidate and you also need to sign a contract at the Department of Personnel and Organization, please make sure to contact the Department of Personnel and Organization immediately.
3. USEFUL INFORMATION

PAYMENT OF TUITION FEES
(ONLY APPLICABLE FOR DEGREE STUDENTS)

- You receive an invoice upon enrolment.
- You can pay the tuition fee at the Registrar’s Office with a credit card or bank card. Cash will not be accepted.
- If you cannot pay by card, you will need to make a bank transfer.

www.ugent.be/tuitionfee

OTHER SERVICES OFFERED AT THE REGISTRAR’S OFFICE

- In case you have lost your student card. After paying € 10 (by bank card) – unless you have a police report of theft – a duplicate will be issued.

- Changing your enrolment or stopping your studies.
  In case you are considering to stop your studies, you should first contact the learning track counsellor of your faculty (see p. 113). Subsequently, you need to inform the Registrar’s Office, either in person or by terminating your contract in Oasis (oasis.ugent.be). This is necessary if you want to preserve your chances on re-enrolment for the next academic year.

- You need certified copies of your Ghent University diploma: bring your original diploma and your valid ID or passport.
Go to http://oasis.ugent.be > MyOasis in case:
- you need additional proofs of enrolment/registration
- your address changed
- you want to change your privacy settings

INSURANCE

Make your educational life at Ghent University as adventurous and educational as possible, but live it the safe way by making sure that you have the necessary minimum health insurance and possibly also other coverage!

HEALTH INSURANCE

Health insurance is of the utmost importance because medical costs may occur unexpectedly and can be very high in Belgium.

- Students from the European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland are insured by their homeland medical insurance company during their stay in Belgium.
Ask your insurance company for a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) in order to receive reimbursement of medical expenses immediately in Belgium (after registration with a Belgian health fund) or soon after your return home.
http://ehic.europa.eu

- Students from outside the European Economic Area (non-EEA) except Switzerland, or students without a European health insurance card, have to take out health insurance directly with a Belgian health fund.

UGent advises all international degree and exchange students to make an appointment with one of the Belgian health funds upon arrival. Students will then receive personalized advice concerning health insurance, which is legally mandatory in Belgium for all residents.

For a complete list of health funds in Ghent and other cities, see:

- Travel Insurance
  It is recommended to take out a travel insurance for any travelling you do which is not related to the university activity.
INSURANCE BY GHENT UNIVERSITY

When you are officially registered at Ghent University as a student, you are automatically insured, within policy conditions, for personal accident cover during university activities and on the way from and to university activities, as well as for civil liability during and through university activities.

In case an excursion extra muros or stay abroad is required within the framework of your studies or research: it is your personal responsibility to inform your contact person (staff member of Ghent University) within your own faculty as to receive written consent (obligatory!).

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Mutual consideration for each individual and respect for the university service providers and infrastructure are expected of each member of Ghent University and its guests.
Rules and regulations
EDUCATION AND EXAMINATION CODE

As a registered international student, staff or guest of Ghent University, you agree to comply with the rules and regulations under which the University, its staff and students must operate. The principles of the regulations underpinning these are set out in a number of codes and regulations.

The Education and Examination Code affects every student (both exchange and PhD), as it covers a wide variety of important topics, such as:

- Structure of the academic year
- Description of the academic system
- Enrolment regulations
- Teaching and evaluation methods
- Rules pertaining to a study programme and/or course unit
- Provisions for educational activities
- Examination regulations
- Rules pertaining to a PhD at Ghent University
- Fraud and irregularities (e.g. plagiarism)
- Complaints and appeals

Every year the Education and Examination Code is reviewed and approved by the Board of Governors. Therefore all articles are valid and binding for one academic year.

You can find the Education and Examination Code on the following website; an English translation is available on the website www.ugent.be/en/teaching/studentadmin/OEREnglish
OTHER REGULATIONS

It is important to realize that in addition to the Education and Examination Code there are other regulations that may affect you during your stay at Ghent University:

- Regulations of the University Halls of Residence
  These regulations deal with the rental matters, the use of the infrastructure, and not in the least, with the appropriate social behaviour (sanctions may be imposed). International students and guests staying in the University Halls will receive a copy when signing the contract. This document is an integral part of the tenancy agreement.

- Disciplinary Code for Students (in Dutch only)
  There is also a disciplinary code for staff.

- Rules of proper use of the Ghent University network and the computers controlled by the ICT Department

- Laboratory and workplace regulation

- Acknowledgement of confidentiality and assignment of rights (visiting researchers)

- Ghent University labour regulations
  www.ugent.be/intranet/nl/reglementen/werken/algemeen/arbeidsreglement_eng

Faculties may have their own specific regulations, for example in laboratories. You can always ask a copy in your faculty.

Rules and regulations
GRIEVANCES AND COMPLAINTS

STUDENTS

Students are encouraged to raise any complaints or grievances with an appropriate member of staff at the earliest opportunity, as complaints that are dealt with informally at an early stage have the best chance of being resolved effectively.

Where informal procedures have failed to resolve the problem, students may bring a complaint under the attention of the faculty ombudsperson.

- The faculty ombudsperson treats complaints from students and staff members relating to the implementation of the Education and Examination Code and/or the provisions governing the legal position of students and/or situations which are perceived to be unfair within the wider framework of educational or examination events. They are bound to discretion.

- If the problem is or can not be resolved through their mediation or within the faculty, students can contact the institutional ombuds service. The latter can be contacted via ombuds@ugent.be
In certain situations, students may file an internal appeal with the Internal Appeals Commission, as stipulated in article 100 of the Education and Examination Code (see p. 32).

PHD CANDIDATES

Your dissertation supervisor (promoter) plays a central role as the person coaching your doctoral research efforts. If, for some reason, you are unable to communicate successfully with your dissertation supervisor, please do not hesitate to speak to a faculty ombudsperson for doctoral students.

www.ugent.be/en/ghentuniv/contact/complaints.htm

Anonymous complaints cannot be accepted. All complaints will be treated confidentially.
In addition to the necessary administrative steps, some more practical matters will need to be arranged during the first days of your stay.
ACCOMMODATION

Finding accommodation prior to your arrival is not obvious. If you have not yet found a place to live upon arrival in Ghent, we strongly advise you to sort this out immediately.

You can rent a room provided by Ghent University or a room from a private landlord. Prices for a room on the private housing market vary between € 370 and € 511 per month depending on the area and the type of accommodation.

ACCOMMODATION IN KORTRIJK

For more information about the private rented market in Kortrijk, check out https://www.kotwest.be and https://www.kortrijk.be/huisvesting-op-zoek-naar-een-kot

UNIVERSITY HALLS OF RESIDENCE

There are different application procedures for exchange, degree and PhD candidates. Prices and locations may differ. All information is available on the website of the Housing Office.

If you rent a room in a university residence, you should keep in mind that:
- You need to keep your room clean and tidy.
- It is forbidden to keep or to bring animals in the room or in any other place of the building.
- Visitors are allowed but cannot spend the night nor make use of any facilities.
− As from 23:00, complete silence must be observed in the entire building.
− When violating the stipulations of the Internal Rules and Regulations, tenants can be sanctioned. The sanction can be: a warning, a temporary expulsion or an early termination of the tenancy agreement.

TRANSPORT

Getting around can be a particular challenge for Ghent University’s many students and employees, as Ghent University does not have one single campus. The university buildings are spread all over town. The most popular – and advisable – way to move around in Ghent is by bike.

RENTING A BIKE

De Fietsambassade gives Ghent University students the opportunity to rent a bike for a few months (3, 6, 10 or 12 months). Bikes are available with or without gears. Prices differ accordingly and vary from € 35 - € 70. Extra month: € 5.
What do you need to bring along when you want to rent a bike:
– student card
– your passport or identity card
Tip: Register online beforehand for a quick service:

Wednesday: from 8:30 till 12:15
Thursday: from 8:30 till 12:15 and from 13:00 till 17:45
Friday: closed

In case of theft of your bicycle: report it to the police within 24 hours, and go to bike point Kattenberg within five working days. Bring along the police report and bicycle keys.

Bicycles that are not safely secured or seem to be neglected, are often picked up again by “De Fietsambassade”. Bicycles outside the city centre and in the Ghent suburbs are subject to the same treatment. Such initiatives are taken to prevent bicycles from being stolen or rusting away.

If you aren't planning to use your bike regularly or if you are looking to rent an extra bike for friends and family visiting, other options are available:
- www.defietsambassade.gent
- Blue-bike http://www.blue-bike.be/en

BICYCLE REPAIR

Please check the latest opening hours of the different repair points on the following webpage: www.defietsambassade.gent

Students get 10% discount on repair if they can show their student card.
Ghent University staff and students can make use of several bike repair shops. All shops are open to Ghent University students.

Attention! Bike point Kattenberg De Fietsambassade only repairs rental bicycles. Do you need a reparation for your own bicycle? Go to one of the other three bike points: bike point Gent Sint-Pieters, bike point Dampoort or bike point Centrum.

ANTI-THEFT TIPS

Bicycle thefts happen every day… The use of the bicycle lock is necessary to discourage thieves, but it’s even better to use an extra padlock.

Some more tips:
- Always secure your bike (even if you leave it for just a second).
- Secure your bike to a pole, fence, bike stand etc. (never to a traffic sign).
- Use a sturdy lock.
- Make sure that removing your bike takes some time (e.g. use two locks).
- Leave your bike at a safe and visible place (preferably a bike shed or stand). Avoid dark or abandoned places.
BUSES AND TRAMS

Public transport in the city is well-organized. Buses and trams ride from early in the morning until late at night.

To determine the price of a bus ride, Ghent and its surroundings have been divided into zones. The price for a ticket depends on the number of zones that you travel through. You can choose between several ways of paying for your ride. Have a close look at the different tickets that are offered according to your transport needs: prices may differ considerably (prices below with reservation to changes made by the transport company De Lijn).

Public transport in Belgium is managed on regional level. Hence, Brussels and Wallonia have separate public transport companies. For this reason the tickets are only valid in Flanders.

- Single journey: in the city centre a ticket is valid for 1 hour including changes of bus/tram without restriction, price: € 3. If you buy a ticket by SMS, you pay € 2,50 (send ‘DL’ to 4884 for a 1 hour journey ticket) or € 7,50 (send ‘DLD’ for a daypass of 24h). Your cheapest option is to use the ‘De Lijn’ app (€ 1,80 for an ‘m-ticket’ for 1 hour or € 7,50 for a daypass of 24h).

- Lijnkaart: in case you will be using city buses or trams more regularly, you are better off buying a ‘Lijnkaart’ (€ 16 in presale for 10 rides), which you validate in the bus/tram each time you make a trip. When you buy this through the ‘De Lijn’ app, you pay €15 (m-card10). Valid in all Flemish cities.
- Day Ticket: allows you to travel through Ghent on any tram or bus for the whole day; costs €7.5. Also 3-day tickets are available (€15).

- Buzzy Pass or Omnipas: If you will be using the buses and trams for a longer period, it might be a lot cheaper to buy a ‘season ticket’: a ‘Buzzy Pazz’ or an ‘Omnipas’. Both cards are valid on any bus and tram of ‘De Lijn’. You can also use these season tickets in other Flemish cities and at the Belgian coast.

TRAIN

In Ghent there are two railway stations, Gent Sint-Pieters (main station) and Gent Dampoort, which allow smooth access to the whole Belgian railway network.

- If you are younger than 26, and planning to travel frequently by train, it is more interesting to buy a Youth Multi ticket: valid for 1 year – 10 rides (2nd class single) between two Belgian stations; € 53; so one single journey only costs € 5,3.
It’s possible to use the Multi Youth with several people at the same time. The Multi Youth is particularly advantageous for longer journeys.

- If you’re 26 or older, you can use the Standard Multi. This card gives the same benefits as the Multi Youth, but it costs € 83. More information: https://www.belgiantrain.be/en
- Also ask for weekend tickets in the stations. They are 50% cheaper!

You can travel by high-speed train from Brussels to:

- Paris, Amsterdam, Aachen, Köln, Schiphol, Den Haag, Rotterdam, etc. with the Thalys train: www.thalys.com
- London, Ashford, Lille with the Eurostar train: www.eurostar.com

LONG DISTANCE TRAVELLING

Share a ride at https://www.nl.blablacar.be/ to travel to the neighbouring countries for less money. You can easily book your seat online and travel from city A to city B, even last minute. Weekends are perfect to find a ride, as a lot of people go home for a weekend after the work week.

Long distance buses: Flixbus, Eurolines, Megabus and other companies have a broad range of destinations in Belgium, France, The Netherlands, Germany, Spain... Check out their promotions and get away for less than € 10.

AEROPLANE

Belgium has a number of commercial airports but the 2 major international airports are Brussels Airport (Brussel Nationale Luchthaven) in Zaventem and Charleroi Airport (aka: ‘Brussels South’).

Ghent University adopts a sustainable travel policy. Please read more about this on our webpage!

MONEY & BANKING

It is safer to deposit your money in a bank rather than leaving large amounts of cash in your room, even if the door is locked, or walking around with it.

For some international students it is necessary to open a bank account shortly after arrival, in order to be able to receive the grant they are entitled to or their monthly installments of their reimbursement.

The Belgian currency is the Euro (€, EUR). There are 6 coins and 7 notes:
- coins: coins of €1 and 2 and coins of 50, 20, 10, 5;
- notes: notes of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5.

All prices in Belgium include VAT and service.

There are many branches of different banks in Ghent. Most banks are open on weekdays from 09:00 – 12:00 and from 14:00 – 16:00. Some banks are open on Saturday morning and have late opening hours once a week. During the weekend, you can use the ‘Bancontact/Mister Cash’ cash dispensers (ATM) to withdraw money.

At most banks, however, it will not be possible to open a bank account if you are only staying for a few months. Most banks require a minimum stay of 5/6 months. Please contact the bank in question to ask about the requirements.
You can consult a list of banks in the centre of Ghent on the following website: www.goldenpages.be/banks/ghent

BANK ACCOUNT

To open a bank account you will need your passport or identity card and an address in Ghent.

It can also be useful to take your student card or personnel card with you. Some banks, moreover, require the document ‘Annex 15’ which you receive after having registered at the Migration Office of the City of Ghent (see p. 23).

FOREIGN EXCHANGE & MONEY TRANSFERS

In Ghent you will find a number of places for exchange and money transactions. Most banks also provide these services.

If you need to send money to your home country, you can contact one of the following offices:

Goffin Change (Western Union)
Henegouwenstraat 27
Monday to Friday: 09:00 – 18:00
Saturday: 10:00 – 17:00

Travelex nv – Camrail (Western Union)
Steendam 108
Monday to Friday: 08:30 - 17:30
Saturday: 09:30 - 16:30
Living standards are quite high in Belgium. How much money you actually spend will of course depend on your life style and spending habits. The costs for housing, for example, may differ considerably.

If you plan to travel a lot during your stay here, you will of course need a budget for extra travel expenses. Remember that during the first month of your stay, there may be extra expenses for insurance, temporary accommodation and deposits, clothing, equipment (kitchen utensils, furniture, etc.) and other things. For an indication of prices you can always have a look at the following website: www.ugent.be/en/living > Cost of living in Belgium.
Taxes

During your stay you may receive tax letters or other payment requests (all in Dutch).

Provincial Tax

Everyone who is domiciled in Ghent needs to pay provincial tax. A tax letter will be sent to your address in Ghent. You do not need to fill in any forms – a transfer form with a set payable amount is being sent to your address.

Income Tax

All adults holding a residence permit are sent an annual income declaration. Spring is traditionally tax time in Belgium, so watch out for either the 'manilla' colored envelope containing the annual income tax declaration or the provincial tax transfer form. If possible, the easiest way to fill in your tax form is online via Tax-on-web. See: http://www.myminfin.be/.

Students who did not work, can send the tax letter back, mentioning 'not applicable'. Students who did work (employment contract) will have to fill out the tax form. However, they will not be taxed on revenues from allowances or gifts from family members.

More information is available on: www.ugent.be/en/living/money/taxes.htm Do not hesitate to ask your contact person at Ghent University for help.
FLEMISH CARE INSURANCE

You may receive a payment request in Dutch for the Flemish Care Insurance (‘Vlaamse Zorgverzekering’). This system provides those who need long-term care with part or full cover for the costs of non-medical care offered by services, professional care providers or informal care providers.

However, most international students are exempt from joining this insurance and therefore from paying this tax, by sending a proof of enrolment / registration at Ghent University for the current tax year, if they meet the following conditions:

- one is a student or researcher (or family member) with a temporary residence permit
- one comes from a state outside the EU, the EEA and not from Switzerland (their citizens are automatically exempt).
DAILY NEEDS

WASTE MANAGEMENT

Keep in mind that sorting out your garbage is obligatory and will save you money.

Normal garbage: throw everything that is not collected selectively in the official IVAGO green waste bag. In some districts of Ghent this waste is collected in black containers. This is collected every week.

PMD: Plastic packaging (except for eps or ‘Styrofoam’), Metal packaging (incl. spray bottles of cosmetics and food) and Drink cartons. For example: soda cans, sprays (deodorant), (crown) caps, plastic bottles of drinks, shampoo, yoghurt cups, cheese packaging, plastic bags, butter dishes... Collected every 2 weeks.

‘Stad Gent’ handles strict rules regarding the collection of garbage and recycling. You are obliged to use the green and (cheaper) blue IVAGO waste bags depending on your collected waste.

Both green and blue IVAGO waste bags can be purchased in most supermarkets.
Glass: transparent empty glass bottles, bowls and flasks.
- In a plastic bucket or solid plastic box with closed bottom and lateral walls. Not in wooden crates or cardboard boxes!
- Collected once a month.

GFT: vegetables, fruits, food leftovers (no animal bones), coffee grounds and garden waste.
- You can use a green IVAGO container with electronic chip. This must be ordered at IVAGO or www.ivago.be.
  You can find the prices on the website.
- Collected every 2 weeks.

Paper and cardboard: newspapers, magazines, books, cardboard boxes, etc.
- In a closed cardboard box or tied together with string.
- Collected once a month.

Batteries: Make use of the collection points in any shop that sells batteries.

To find out when the waste collection in your neighbourhood is done, please consult the webpage https://www.ivago.be/thuisafval/ophaling/ophaalkalender where you can enter your streetname. Display the collection calendar in a clearly visible place in your student room!

You can also download the very useful app ‘Recycle!’ for your smartphone.
Cooking oil: Take bottles with used cooking oil to the IVAGO waste recovery park or put them in the cooking oil collection points in some supermarkets.

Needles: Do not throw medical needles in the household waste. Take the needles, packed in needle boxes (for sale at the pharmacist), to the IVAGO waste recovery park.

Collection containers
There are many collection boxes in supermarkets, shops and public places. Student houses with over 10 residential units have special collection containers for household waste, glass, paper and cardboard, PMD and possibly GFT (Vegetable, Fruit, food leftovers and and Garden Waste). Ask your caretaker or landlord for the correct collection dates. Note that you have to put your household waste and PMD in the official IVAGO bags. Place these bags in the correct container. Students staying in the University Halls of Residence have to take into account specific waste management instructions of which they will be clearly informed.

IVAGO waste recovery park: Proeftuinstraat 43, 9000 Gent. Open Tue-Sat 9:30 - 17:15  Closed between 12.30 and 13.00 / info@ivago.be / www.ivago.be

FACILITIES

The following section gives you an idea of the range of additional Ghent University facilities and services that are available to help you during your stay.
FOOD & DRINKS

STUDENT RESTAURANTS AND CAFETERIAS

There are several student restaurants and cafeterias at different locations, all close to the university buildings (cfr. Ghent University City Map). The service and food they offer is of a high quality, while the prices are the lowest in town (average price € 4). Dieticians make sure that the menus are varied, healthy and balanced. Meat, fish, poultry, vegetarian and vegan menus are available (no halal or kosher kitchen).

You can only pay cashless and contactless. You pay with your Ghent University Student card or with a debit or credit card. The balance on your Ghent University Student card can be topped up easily via https://epurse.ugent.be/. Check your current balance via the same website.

The student restaurants may have different opening hours (see below).
The student restaurants are open from Monday to Friday.
In weekends and during Ghent University holidays, most restaurants may be closed: check the website!

In the evening only the following student restaurant is open:
Campus Ufo, De Brug
Sint-Pietersnieuwstraat 45

Ghent University Library is a network of the Book Tower, 11 faculty libraries across Ghent. Our mission is to facilitate open knowledge creation.

To discover the rich collections and services of Ghent University libraries, it's best to start on the website: https://lib.ugent.be. It is also the gateway for all your library questions via email, chat, telephone... Ghent University provides access to over 135,000 electronic journals, almost 1 million e-books and no less than 110 databases. If you know which database or journal to consult, the library website can guide you within the electronic world of scientific communication and cultural heritage. If you don't know yet, we suggest you try Google Scholar as a discovery tool. (https://scholar.google.be/)

The Book Tower is one of Ghent’s iconic towers which was designed by the world-renowned architect Henry van de Velde. The ‘Book Tower’ acts as a treasury house for the rich cultural heritage that was both collected by and entrusted to the university (including ancient manuscripts, unique publications, atlas maps, photographs, architectural plans, coins, etchings, drawings and ephemerae). Through scan-on-demand services all this wealth is disclosed fast and easy. Moreover, as a Google-books partner more than 250,000 books are ready for use 24/7.

GHENT UNIVERSITY INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY

GHENT UNIVERSITY ICT FACILITIES

The Department of Information and Communication Technology (DICT) provides information to students and staff members about UGentNet, the Ghent University account and email environment, the online learning environment, software, disk space and web space and phone services.

The most important topics are discussed briefly below. More detailed information can be found on the department’s web page: www.ugent.be/en/facilities/ict/
YOUR ACCOUNT

You will receive an email with a link to activate your Ghent University account, on condition that you agree to abide by the rules of proper use of the Ghent University network and the computers controlled by DICT. You can find these rules on the DICT helpdesk site. https://helpdesk.ugent.be/en/

As long as your registration or enrolment (at the central student administration) has not been completed successfully, you will not obtain your Ghent University account. Please make sure that you complete the administrative process in time to avoid delays.

The account data include your (university) email address, your login name and your password.

EMAIL

A Ghent University email address looks like this: name.surname@ugent.be.

Via https://owa.ugent.be/ you can immediately manage your email, using any internet connection; no configuration is needed.
OASIS – EDUCATION AND STUDENT ADMINISTRATION SYSTEM

Oasis is the IT-system that supports the processes and activities concerning the education and student administration. By means of the Oasis web application (available at http://oasis.ugent.be) students can consult information on their enrolment(s), change address and print certificates (see p. 20). It is also the main tool for the management of the curriculum (courses per academic year).

UFORA – ONLINE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

At Ghent University, the official digital learning environment Ufora is used to provide information and course material and to optimize communication between staff and students. Ufora can only be accessed by students and staff who have a valid Ghent University account, via https://ufora.ugent.be.

UGENTNET

If you have an account, you can access the UGentNet and the Belgian research network BELNET. Part of the university network is accessible to all. Some internal Ghent University information is only available after you have logged in with your login name and password. A number of Ghent University ICT facilities can only be used from computers connected to UGentNet.

Students staying in one of the University Halls of Residence, have direct access to password.ugent.be, the helpdesk website and Athena. For all other applications they need to set up a VPN connection to obtain access. Please note that Internet traffic from rooms in a University Hall of Residence is limited in volume.
when using VPN. However, no VPN is needed in homes Heymans, Canterbury, Göttingen, Groningen and Uppsala. For more information, see: https://helpdesk.ugent.be/ugentnet/en/studentenhomes.php.

On locations outside the university campus, provided that they have a working internet connection, students can set up a VPN connection to get access to UGentNet.

The VPN connection is necessary for safety reasons, for example to consult internal information on the library website, to mount a network drive, etc.

All necessary information about how to set up a Virtual Private Network (VPN) can be found through the link below: https://helpdesk.ugent.be/vpn/en/

In a number of Ghent University buildings it is possible to set up a wireless ("wifi") connection. At Ghent University we have Eduroam.

ATHENA AND SOFTWARE

Having an account allows you to use software offered on Athena. The software you can use is delivered from central servers and is not installed on your device.

HELPDESK ON THE ROAD

Each Tuesday and Thursday DICT organises HOTR sessions (https://helpdesk.ugent.be/hotr/en/) for hands-on help for IT and account related questions at the UFO building.
PC ROOMS

In all faculties and in a few central locations PC rooms have been set up. Most can be used for both classical sessions and individual study.

The operating system on the PCs is Windows, in English or in Dutch, as chosen by the faculty. Additionally, general and field specific software is installed by the Department of Information and Communication Technology (DICT). More info can be found on: https://helpdesk.ugent.be/publiccomputer/en/

WHERE?

Printing, copying and scanning can be done in PC rooms and libraries: https://helpdesk.ugent.be/publiccomputer/en/

CENTRAL DISK SPACE

With your account comes central disk space on which you can save files. By default you get 2 network drives:
- Personal disk space: your “homedrive”, H:-drive
- Personal web space; on a webserver, meant for setting up a site: your W:-drive or G:\WWW

To use your network drives you have to “mount” them. How you do this is explained on: https://helpdesk.ugent.be/netdisk/en/bestand_mount.php
PERSONAL WEBSITE

You can set up a personal website. More info can be found on https://helpdesk.ugent.be/webhosting/en

Since 2015, Ghent University has a Green Office, where students and staff work closely together to create a more sustainable University, which would be an example for others. The Green Office initiates and supports sustainable projects, connects people, performs experiments and helps the decision makers to introduce sustainable policies.

You can and should be part of this story! Each week there is a Sustainight (http://greencommunity.be/sustainight) on Tuesdays, where all students are welcome to listen to a speaker, join a debate or one of our fun activities. With Making Tomorrow (http://greencommunity.be/makingtomorrow), many students – both exchange students and local students – come together to join forces on sustainable projects.

A lot of the sustainable action takes place in the Green Hub. This visible space in the UFO building is open for everyone at our institution who wants to learn, talk or act on sustainability at Ghent University. Make sure you discover this spot during your stay.

STUDENT JOBS

First of all some words of caution: combining academic studies and a student job is not always easy. Moreover, finding a job is quite difficult as an international student.

In case you decide to look for a student job, we recommend you to contact the Job Service personally. At the same time they will also offer you valuable advice on your rights and responsibilities.

For most jobs a sound knowledge of Dutch is necessary!

Before making use of the Job Service registration service, you have to register on the Job Service’s website. Use your login and password (from DICT, see p. 67):

Theoretically every student is allowed to work, on condition that some formalities are fulfilled.

All students from the EU-countries + Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Switzerland need:
- proof of registration at the Foreigners’ Register (see p. 23) and Belgian national number
- an IBAN coded bank account or a Belgian bank account (these two administrative steps will be necessary to start the practical start of employment).

Students from other countries need:
- proof of registration at the Foreigners’ Register (see p. 23)
- a valid Residence Card from the City of Ghent Type A, with mentions “arbeidsmarkt: beperkt”
– Belgian national number
– an IBAN coded bank account or a Belgian bank account

Students are allowed to work in order to increase their resources, but a student job should not affect the studies and must remain secondary to the studies! An international student is allowed to work up to 20 hours a week and without this limitation during school holidays. On the residence card type A is mentioned “arbeidsmarkt: beperkt” (labour market: limited). Since January 2019 this statement replaces the work permit C. Applying for this work permit C is no longer possible: the issue of a residence card automatically provides the work permit.

Always make sure you have a contract when you work, so that you are legally protected by law.

The employment contract the student receives, will indicate the gross amount of the monthly wage. The net amount the student actually receives will be less, since taxes and social security are deducted (see p. 52).

PHD CANDIDATES

PhD candidates cannot turn to the Job Service.

SPORTS

Ghent University boasts a fully-equipped sports centre, with three large halls for indoor activities, a dojo (a hall especially designed to practise martial arts), two conference rooms, a 25 meter swimming pool, an instruction pool, two saunas, etc.

The university also offers individual supporting services and counselling for students who are actively involved in top-class sports. Special attention is also devoted to sports for disabled students.

The centre is located alongside the ‘Watersportbaan’ (rowing track), close to the Flanders Sports Arena, both the scene of several international meetings. It is situated in the neighborhood of the ‘Blaarmeersen’ (municipal sports and recreational area).

Some of the sports that can be pursued are: aerobics, aikido, aqua gym, badminton, basketball, diving, BBB, cross fit, handball, hockey, jazz dance, Krav Maga, jogging in group, judo, karate, kayaking, mini-football and five-a-side football, rugby, sailing, swimming, table tennis, tennis, volleyball, water polo, yoga.

TOP LEAGUE SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Regardless of the sports discipline involved, students qualify to be awarded ‘special status’ if they first and foremost comply with one of the following requirements:
- be recognised as a top athlete by the BOIC or Sport Vlaanderen, or by their corresponding national sport organisations;
- be considered as a top athlete or as a promising young athlete by their own sport federation;
- meet the standards held out for taking part in the Universiade or the University World Championships.

Moreover, this category of students is required to complete at least 5 training or competition sessions on a weekly basis. Supplementary requirements apply for each sports discipline.

CHILD CARE

Combining your studies or employment with family life is not an easy task. If you have small children, you have the additional worry of finding the best possible child care. There are long waiting lists everywhere, particularly for babies.
Ghent University offers its students and personnel child care options for children aged 0 to 3. You can always contact our Central Child Care Desk or have a look on the website for more information concerning the policy on child care, applications, priority regulations, etc. Please find below an overview of the child care options which Ghent University is providing:

GHENT UNIVERSITY INITIATIVES:
CHILDREN AGED FROM 0 TO 3

The children can stay there up to and including the quarter in which they become 3 years old. This period can be extended by the duration of the school holidays following this quarter.

CONTACT

For more information about the application and allocation procedure for these UGent reception initiatives, you can contact:

Ghent University Central Child Care Desk
Kinderopvang@UGent.be / +32 9 331 24 74

The registration for all these reception initiatives are made via our central registration desk kinderopvang@UGent.be, by submitting the application form (see https://www.ugent.be/en/facilities/childcare-school/child ‘Application compulsory’).

FIRST AID

Accidents may happen, problems may occur. You may be confronted with health-related or personal problems, also with technical or safety problems or other kinds of situations that need acute or short-term solving.
Read this section carefully:
it contains the first steps towards some solutions.
SECURITY DEPARTMENT AND EMERGENCY CENTRE

The security department can assist in case of technical incidents (power failure, damage to infrastructure, leakage, stuck elevators, etc.) and safety and security incidents (fire, accident, aggression, theft, excessive noise etc.) in the university.

The security department and emergency centre is open 24/7 and is located at Home Vermeylen (Stalhof 6).

- In case of an emergency, call +32 9 264 88 88 (or 88 via an internal Ghent University phone)
- In case of a non-emergency, call +32 9 264 71 25
- Try to prepare your call by thinking of ‘who, where, when, what and why’.

HEALTH MATTERS

GENERAL PRACTITIONERS (GP)

In the unhappy event of health problems, you can turn to the university’s Medical Service for Students, where a group of GPs runs a practice for students. They are well-acquainted with the student’s medical needs. Also for small surgery and gynaecological consultations students can make use of this service.

Consultations are held every working day: during the day an appointment is required, but in the evening there are consultations on a ‘first come, first serve’ basis. In case you wish to see a GP, please take the labels from a local health fund or your insurance certificate with you to the consultation (see p. 25). In most cases, however, it will be sufficient to present your national ID number (‘rijksregisternummer’). This is the number which you can find on your electronic residence card.

Note: the GPs are not available via email (neither for appointments, nor for diagnosis or prescriptions).

MEDICAL SERVICE

Rectoraat
Sint-Pietersnieuwstraat 25
T +32 9 264 70 20
www.ugent.be/medicalservice

Hospital emergency services are expensive. If your condition is not immediately life-threatening, you should try consulting a GP first.

For Urgent - but non life-threatening - medical help at night, in weekends or during bank holidays, call a GP ‘on duty’: T 1733 (general number for citizens of Ghent).
Students or staff can also contact a general practitioner elsewhere in town. It is recommended to consult a GP first instead of going immediately to a specialist or the emergency service of the hospital:

- GPs are easier to reach.
- A GP will keep your medical history on file. This is important since information from previous medical examinations may be relevant to your present condition. It also means that the GP does not need to repeat medical tests or examinations you may already have had. This can save you a lot of money, time, and possible discomfort.
- With certain medical conditions, it is not always clear which specialist is most qualified. On your own, you might have to try several specialists before finding the right one, whereas a GP can quickly diagnose your problem and refer you to the proper specialist.

Information about sexual health / family planning:
PROOF OF REGISTRATION AT A LOCAL HEALTH FUND: LABELS / NATIONAL ID NUMBER (‘RIJKSREGISTERNUMMER’)

When you take out health insurance via a standard health care insurance company (‘ziekenfonds/mutualiteit’), you will receive a page of detachable official address labels (e.g. necessary when medical samples are taken).

Please take your labels and national ID number (mentioned on your electronic residence card) with you every time you go to the pharmacy, a doctor, a hospital, or to the health insurance office. If you don’t have proof of your registration at a local health fund with you, you will have to pay the full amount at the pharmacy. In this case, ask for the Annex 30 for reimbursement so that you can be reimbursed by the local health fund.

If you need to go to hospital and you don’t have proof of your registration at a local health fund with you, you will get an invoice for the total cost. Don’t pay it – simply bring it to your local health fund, and they will take care of it (but you will have to pay some costs yourself). But beware: if you present yourself at the emergency room, you will be expected to pay immediately (a fee of ca. € 160). A possible reimbursement will only happen after your local health fund has received all invoices.
DENTISTS

Basic dental care costs are reimbursed up to a certain extent by the local health funds (‘mutualiteiten’).

Keep in mind that specialized dental care can be quite expensive. For further details about which dental care costs can be (partially) reimbursed, please check with your health insurance company. A list of all dentists in and around Ghent can be found in the Yellow Pages: www.goldenpages.be > Dentists > Gent or on the website www.tandarts.be

Dentists on duty during the weekend and bank holidays, from 09:00 - 18:00 (emergency cases only):
T +32 903 399 69 (€ 1.50/min).

PHARMACIES

Medication and certain health products are available from a local pharmacy. A pharmacy supplies two kinds of medication: medication prepared by the pharmacist himself and medication which is industrially produced.

Pharmacies are subject to strict rules. For example, they are not allowed to supply certain medication without a medical prescription.

Medication on prescription cannot be delivered by a Belgian pharmacy on the basis of a prescription from abroad. You will need to go to a GP or hospital to ask for a new medical prescription.
Ask the GP and pharmacist for generic medication. Generic products are characteristically lower in price than those with brand names and sold in plain, cheap packaging.

Opening hours / urgencies:
Pharmacies are usually closed on Saturdays and Sundays. A limited number of pharmacists are on duty during the weekend and at night for patients in urgent need of medication.

In that case, however, an extra fee will be charged. A list of on-duty pharmacists is displayed at every (closed) pharmacy.

PSYCHOLOGICAL HELP

Students who are at odds with their studies because of personal distress and/or ineffective study habits, can turn to the Student Counselling Office. Psychologists, well-acquainted with study problems or psychological problems that students may have, are available for counselling. In consultation with the student an appropriate treatment can be started or, when necessary, the student can be referred to a specialized psychologist for further therapy.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT – ACCULTURATION
No better way to explore the Flemish culture than by learning the local language: Dutch. By doing so, you will join more than 23 million Dutch-speaking people all over the world.

The University Language Centre (UCT) offers excellent Dutch courses at various levels. It also organizes language courses in Arabic, German, English, French, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish, Swedish, Flemish Sign Language and Russian. The Language Centre guarantees high-quality University language education by experienced teachers. The sessions take place in relatively small groups to guarantee an interactive approach. Most levels start at the beginning of each semester. Students can follow the language courses at a reduced fee. For more information about prices and schedules, we refer you to the UCT website: https://www.ugent.be/lw/uct/en Please keep in mind that payment is only possible with bank or credit card or via bank transfer.
LANGUAGE SUPPORT

The official language of instruction at Ghent University is Dutch. However, a number of master courses are taught in English. If you feel insecure about your knowledge of English or Dutch, you can turn to the University Language Centre (UCT) for a wide range of courses of academic language skills, both in English and in Dutch. For certain Dutch and English courses, ECTS credits can be obtained by certain groups of students, including PhD candidates (when included in their Learning Agreement). Students who are on an exchange within the framework of a bilateral agreement, are entitled to a reduction when they register for a Dutch course at the UCT.

LOW COUNTRIES STUDIES

Low Countries Studies is a post-academic acculturation programme for both exchange students and international degree students as well as international researchers and staff wanting to learn more about Flanders, Belgium and the Netherlands. The students get a broad overview of various aspects of Flemish society (language, art and culture, history, politics, the media, the Flemish landscape, town and country planning, ethics, etc.) and everyday customs in Flanders. The programme consists of a series of 12 lectures in English and a number of extra activities.

If you have a valid Ghent University student card, the programme is free, but you still need to register officially. Researchers and personnel without a student card need to take out a general Ghent University student registration. This costs 245,20 EUR.

The Low Countries Studies programme does not lead to a degree, only to a certificate. The programme is not a full-time degree programme and cannot be used to gain access to university studies. If you are a student, you need to follow it as an additional programme. Since this is a post-academic programme, there are no ECTS credits to be obtained. The programme starts in the second semester (February – end of May).

From mid-November you can find all necessary information as well as the procedure of registration on the website: www.ugent.be/lw/lcs
LIVING IN GHENT

If you want to know more about daily life in Ghent, we refer you to the following web pages: www.ugent.be/en/living

‘Code of Good Practice: Living together as a Ghent University community’ Ghent University distinguishes itself as a socially committed and pluralistic university in a broad international perspective. However, living, studying and conducting research might be different in a foreign country. We therefore offer some guidance which may be useful to make you feel more at home at Ghent University and in Ghent through our leaflet ‘Living together as a Ghent University community – a code of good practice’ (PDF) which can be downloaded from this webpage: www.ugent.be/en/living/everyday/conduct.htm

Act like a local: Here are some useful hints and survival guidelines about local behaviour. Some are typically Belgian, some are truly ‘Ghentish’.
http://www.use-it.be/ghent/ : > ‘act like’ the LOCALS
The academic year at Ghent University is divided into two semesters. The first semester ends by the end of December, and is followed by examinations in January-February (4 weeks, starting after the winter break). The exams of the second semester are held in June (5 weeks).

ECTS

Ghent University has adopted the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS). The number of ECTS credits per course unit can be found in the course catalogue. 1 ECTS credit equals 25–30 hours of study. A complete year of study in Belgium is normally 60 ECTS. The number of ECTS credits assigned to a course unit is not related to the number of class hours. The credits give an indication of the total number of hours you are expected to spend on the course unit (including preparing for and attending classes, practical or lab work, reading books, writing papers, studying for tests and exams, etc). The number of contact hours you have in class depends on the nature of the course unit. For questions on specific course units and the ECTS credits allocated to them, you can contact the FCI Administrator (see p. 113) of the faculty concerned.
EXAMINATION PERIODS

Examinations are held in January and June. A course unit must be fully completed before an exam can take place. However, full-year course units take longer than only one semester. Examinations for these courses always take place in June.

At the end of August / beginning of September a second examination period is organized. Students can use this period to retake (failed) courses from both the first and the second semester.

Examinations can be oral and/or written. This is clearly described in the ECTS course specifications in the Ghent University course catalogue of the current academic year: https://studiegids.ugent.be/2020/EN/studiegids.html

Grades obtained for practical exercises and the results of written and oral tests during the year, may also be taken into account for the final result, as part of a system of permanent evaluation. For each course unit the evaluation/examination method is indicated in the course catalogue, as well as the minimum requirements for awarding credit points.

Ghent University uses a grading system of 0–20 with intervals of 1 point. No half points are used. 10 to 20 are the passing marks, 0 to 9 are failing marks.

For more information on the academic system in the Education and Examination Code please check p. 32.
Grades obtained at Ghent University need to be converted to the grading scale of the sending institution. Ghent University fully supports grade conversion as stipulated in the 2015 ECTS users' guide.

The grade distribution, needed for such a conversion, is mentioned on the Transcript of Records. It is up to the sending institution to use this information for a fair conversion of grades obtained at Ghent.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR – HOLIDAY PERIODS – CLOSING DAYS

STUDENT COUNSELLING SERVICE

STUDENT COUNSELLING OFFICE

The Counselling Office offers:

- Study career counselling:
  For each step or problem in a student’s study career, a team of advisers is available to talk about study matters and study choices. Information and counselling on the curricula, the foreknowledge and the aptitudes required, examination regulations, switch-over possibilities, bridging courses, etc.

- Study problems and study skills:
  A psychologist is available to guide students in finding the appropriate study attitude and functional study skills. Students are helped to remedy problematic matters as lack of concentration, study planning and time management, problems with writing a paper or dissertation, declining motivation, procrastination, ... Each semester workshops on study skills and related topics are organized in small groups (in Dutch). Booking is necessary.

- Personal / psychological problems:
  A psychologist is available for confidential counselling for students who cope with study problems because of personal distress; (pre)exam nerves, strain, fear of failure, relational problems, self-assertion, home sickness, depression, ...
  For individual counselling it is strongly recommended to make an appointment. Yearly workshops in small groups are organized about how to deal with fear of failure (in Dutch). Booking is necessary.

- Information on master and postgraduate programmes and PhD
Career guidance:

Final-year or graduated students, in transition from study to work, are offered a helping hand with professional advice in finding their way on the labour market in Belgium as well as in other European member states.

DOCTORAL SCHOOLS

The faculty grants admission to the PhD and, upon successful defence of the PhD dissertation, awards the PhD degree. PhD candidates are supported by their supervisors, who provide individual research coaching, as well as by the Doctoral Schools, which offer training in research.

There are five Doctoral Schools, all of which have a specific research focus:

- Arts, Humanities and Law
- Social and Behavioural Sciences
- Natural Sciences
- (Bioscience) Engineering
- Life Sciences and Medicine

All incoming PhD candidates enrolled at Ghent University automatically become a member of the Doctoral School of their choice. Registering for a Doctoral School offers some rewarding and interesting opportunities:

- The Doctoral Schools offer first-class courses both within and beyond PhD candidates immediate field of research. They complement research-related activities with relevant skills training.
- The Doctoral Schools also organise cutting-edge guest lectures, information sessions, and career events.
For more information (contact details, announcements of information sessions, etc.), please visit the Doctoral Schools website: https://www.ugent.be/doctoralschools/en/

PhD candidates will receive a monthly newsletter containing information about all of the courses, activities, and events that the doctoral school organises.

Ghent University, abbreviated as U Gent, is one of the major universities in the Dutch-speaking region of Europe. It distinguishes itself as a socially committed and pluralistic university in a broad international perspective.

Ghent University’s international image is reflected in the basic facts and figures and Ghent University’s attitude to and position in the major rankings.

LECTURES: WHERE?

For specific course details and location, check out your class timetable/schedule via your faculty’s website. Faculty activities may take place at different locations, which are not necessarily on the official address of the faculty.

EXAMINATIONS SCHEDULES

All students are automatically registered for both examination periods by way of their enrolment. Examination schedules are posted by the faculties on the public notice boards and/or sent out in electronic format.
FACULTY INTERNATIONAL OFFICES

Each faculty has a Committee for Internationalisation (FCI). The FCI-administrator of your faculty will be able to help you with most of your questions about academic matters (courses, exams, transcripts, professors, faculty regulations, deadlines, etc.).

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND SOCIETIES

One of the best ways to get a feel of the place is to become involved in student activities, perhaps by joining one of the several dozen student societies. There are cultural groups (a theatre group also playing in other languages, photography class, painting class, orchestras, ...), workgroups on social and scientific issues, political and philosophical groups, specific international students’ associations, a home council for students living in the Home Kantienberg and a special Erasmus Student Network.

More information about all of these can be obtained from the Student House (Studentenhuis De Therminal, Campus Tweekerken, Hoveniersberg 24, 9000 Gent, T +32 9 264 70 85), which has leaflets giving full details of student societies – website: http://student.ugent.be.

A list of all Ghent University student societies can be found here: http://student.ugent.be/konventen/alle.php
ERASMUS STUDENT NETWORK GENT (ESN GENT)

Erasmus Student Network (ESN)

In 1989, the Erasmus bureau invited 32 former Erasmus students for an evaluation meeting in Ghent, Belgium. This meeting was the starting point of the Erasmus Student Network. The problems that came to the bureau’s attention during the evaluation, became the main concerns of the founders of ESN to work on. Behind all this stood the idea of “students helping students”, which is still the most important motto of all ESN volunteers.

The year 1990 marks the birth year of ESN Gent in particular. Now it is one of the 530+ ESN sections across over 42 countries in Europe. Therefore, ESN is considered to be one of the biggest volunteer and student organizations in Europe, with over 40,000 young people who dedicate their time to lend a hand to over 220,000 international students a year on a voluntary basis.

The mission of ESN Gent is to help all incoming international (degree and exchange) students and to make their stay in Ghent as pleasant as possible. In particular, ESN Gent provides international students with local buddies. If you want to have a local buddy, you can register for the buddy program via the ESN Gent website (http://esngent.org/buddies/). Once you have your buddy appointed, he or she can give you valuable advice concerning all your preparations for your exchange, show you around in Ghent once you arrive and help you find your way in the city during your stay.
Joining ESN is a vital step towards an unforgettable study period in Ghent, as you can enrich your experience with many social, cultural and sport activities as well as international weekend trips to cities as Amsterdam, Paris, Berlin and many more. Joining ESN Gent is an excellent way to integrate in the student life of Ghent and to get to know both local and international students.

If you would like to participate in ESN events and get discounts on ESN parties, you can buy an ESNcard which only costs €15. The ESNcard will also provide you with a lot of useful discounts in Ghent (e.g. discounts on food and drinks in various places) and all over the globe (even a Ryanair discount)! Find more information about the ESNCard on http://esncard.org. You will be able to buy your ESNcard during the Welcome Days or in the ESN Gent office at any other time during the academic year.

If you want to be up-to-date with ESN's upcoming activities or if you cannot wait to meet other international students in Ghent, you can join the ESN Gent 2020–2021 group on Facebook. In order to receive all information about discounts and events, like ESN facebook page https://www.facebook.com/groups/586084172343989/ Once the new semester starts, you will also have the option to sign up for ESN's weekly email.

See you very soon!

Last but not least a word about the terrific and lively city you are studying in.

Ghent is a great city to be living in as a student; at present days Ghent is even the biggest student town in Flanders attracting more than 80,000 students. It is a pleasant and lively city; cosy corners alternate with pleasant and busy shopping streets.

What’s more, it is also a strong cultural attraction pole with important music and film festivals, as well as a variegated theatre and performance scene. The University campus is spread all over the city, which enlivens the atmosphere.

In the 16th century, Ghent was one of the most powerful cities in north western Europe. The city centre still breathes history and sociability. Nowadays it is the capital of the Province of East Flanders (part of the Dutch-speaking community) and the lively core of a large area (population approximately 250,000).

Situated at the intersection of 2 European traffic arteries (E17 and E40), Ghent is very easy to reach by car as well as by train; the seaside or Brussels and Antwerp are only half an hour away. Other cities like Paris, London, Amsterdam and Köln are within reach for a one-day city trip.

STUDENT IN GHENT: “INSANELY SMART”

The international student officer of the City of Ghent, Jeroen Paeleman, acts as an intermediary between students, the institutions of higher education in Ghent and the city government. He functions as the ambassador of students in the city government, monitors current initiatives for and by students and encourages new ones.

The international student officer can be reached by email on the following address: jeroen.paeleman@stad.gent.

Website for students in Ghent: https://stad.gent/international student (switch to the English version!) You can also contact them for interesting tips & tricks for international students!

Gentinfo is the central point of contact for information about the city council and the city. You can reach them via: T +32 9 210 10 10 or email: gentinfo@stad.gent

The next big thing will be a lot of small things.
