

Friday 13 September 2019, 11.30-13.30

Faculty of Law & Criminology, Faculty Board Room

A sandwich lunch will be provided for registered participants.

You are invited to register at

<https://eventmanager.ugent.be/LawandTechnologyLunchSeminar>

Law & Technology Lunch Seminar:

From sharenting to virtual home assistants/invaders:

Challenges for the child's right to privacy and data protection in the digital age

Rezvan Kaseb (University of Zürich): 'Regulating parents' online activities under data protection and privacy laws: from a children's rights perspective'

Ingrida Milkaite (Ghent University) : 'Virtual home assistants/invaders: the child's right to privacy and data protection under pressure'

Discussants: prof. dr. Simone van der Hof (Leiden University) / prof. dr. Eva Lievens (Ghent University)