ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL ORDER & JUSTICE

LECTURE SERIES

During the academic year 2015-2016, the Ghent law faculty will host a series of lectures featuring eight heavyweights in the broader international legal domain. The common theme of their interventions is 'International Order and Justice', symbolizing the structure of arguments in international law.

Eight experts with recognized expertise and a close affinity with the deep roots of international law and its place in the international community will each deliver a public lecture on topics ranging from international criminal law, and arbitration as a method of dispute settlement, to the treatment of property in international law. Particular attention is paid to the interaction between law and politics, the historical roots of international law, and the evolution of its place in the international community.

The lecture series is organized under the auspices of the Ghent Rolin-Jaequemyns International Law Institute (GRILL), and is coordinated by Prof. Dr. Tom Ruyss and Prof. Dr. Frederik Dhondt.

Attendance of the lectures is free of charge, yet prior registration is required. Please register online via
