

IDC Crime, Criminology & Criminal Policy

MISSION

The IDC Crime, Criminology and Criminal Policy is one of UGent's interdisciplinary consortia with focus on societal impact (IDC). The IDC Crime brings together 20+ professors and their staff, working interdisciplinarily on topics related to security, crime and deviance in local, national, European and international contexts. The IDC works together with other research institutes, policy makers, civil society actors and international organizations fostering knowledge transfer, societal engagement and impact.
